

THIRD SPECIAL SESSION IS CONVENED!

REPEAL STATE LIQUOR LAW TO BRING ENFORCEMENT CONFLICT

President Harding Sets Forth His Views as to Probable Conflict in Letter—Government Takes Steps to End Activities of Rum Fleet Along Atlantic Coast—Eight Warrants Issued

(By Associated Press)
NEW BURCHA, N. Y., May 16.—The repeal of the state prohibition enforcement statutes would likely result in more or less conflict between state and federal authorities in the opinion of President Harding. The view of the president was expressed in a letter to Wesley Wait of this city.

WARRANTS CHARGE VIOLATION VOLSTEAD ACT
NEW YORK, May 16.—The government, which announced yesterday plans to smash the rum ring alleged to be operating a liquor fleet along the Atlantic coast from Miami to Boston, today obtained eight federal warrants charging conspiracy to violate the Volstead act and defraud the government customs duties. More warrants, it is announced, will be sought.

FIVE BRYAN BANKERS ATTEND CONVENTION BEING HELD AT DALLAS

(By Associated Press)
DALLAS, May 16.—More than 1000 bankers from virtually every section of the state was in attendance when the 39th Annual Convention of the Texas Bankers' Association met here Tuesday. A number of bankers from other states were also here to discuss with the Texans the problems confronting the finances of the country.

Those From Bryan.
H. O. Boatwright, president of the First National Bank of Bryan and E. W. Crenshaw, vice-president of the City National Bank of Bryan, left Monday for Dallas to be present at the opening of the 3-day session and for the registration. W. S. Higgins, active vice-president of the First State Bank and Trust Company of Bryan, vice-president of the same institution and W. H. Cole, cashier of the City National Bank, all expected to leave Tuesday for the convention.

BAPTIST SOCIAL MEET
The officers and teachers of the First Baptist Sunday school will meet in social session at the home of the pastor, Dr. and Mrs. John A. Held, on West 26th street, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Every teacher and officer of the Sunday school is cordially invited and urged to be present.

ALLEN STUDENTS HOLD ANNUAL MILITARY DAY

(Special to the Eagle)
Friday, May 25, has been designated as military day at Allen academy. The public is cordially invited to be present at these exercises, which will take place on the academy campus at 2 p. m. The program will open with a concert by the Allen cadet corps band, following this the corps will give an exhibition in physical drill, close order cadence drill, silent manual of arms, Butts manual to music, humorous antics of the awkward squad, elimination contest in the manual of arms, and perhaps the biggest feature of the show will be the sham battle which will be staged by the first platoon of company B, against a heavily fortified, enemy position. Following the successful assault of the enemy position the corps will be assembled and the following honors awarded: Gold medal to the best drilled man for the year; the company honor flag to the best company for the year. Battalion parade and review will conclude the military exercises for the school year 1922-1923.

BEASON GIVES REPORT ON CROP CONDITIONS IN BRAZOS COUNTY TO NORTH

County Agent C. L. Beason and family motored to Franklin in Robertson county Sunday to spend the day with County Agent R. B. Ewing and family. After an enjoyable visit they returned home about 8 o'clock last night, being caught in the rain at the Cameron ranch, about seven miles from Bryan. That, according to Mr. Beason, was not quite so enjoyable. Mr. Beason said the rain seemed to be general over this section. He said he did not see 1 per cent of cotton and corn that did not already have a good stand. He mentioned the fact that in that fine farming country along the San Antonio road both crops looked fine but that he regretted that more corn had not been planted that the section might have raised its own feed rather than expending home money for feed crops that can be just as well grown here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McCulloch are today moving from one of the Harrison cottages on East 27th street to their recently purchased home on Ursula avenue.

MILICAN PUTS ON A BIG BARBECUE WITH ALL THE TRIMMINGS

On account of a threatening rain that did not materialize at Millican up until the time the Bryan visitors left, prevented a larger attendance at the big barbecue and supper banquet at the school house there Monday night. Talk about "eats!" Millican can certainly spread them when she so desires and the feed last night, under the direct management of T. A. Hensarling, of the Millican schools, who has been active in all community affairs in that section, was one to be remembered by all who so enjoyably participated. There were only about 50 or 60 people present but they did full justice to all that was set before them and it was not their fault that there was much of it left over; rather was it due to the fact that there was so much of good things to eat spread on the table. The barbecued meats were pork and chevon, the newly-derived term for goat meat, and really it was difficult to note the difference if one were not first told. There was a great deal of this left over. Then on the table was spread cake, pie, salad, pickles, and many other delectable things too numerous to mention. The writer was too busy at that time to take note of the things in particular and detail; but he will vouch for the quantity and quality. A short program followed, though most of those present had left for their homes immediately following the serving of the spread, due to the most threatening storm.

Visitors From Bryan
Those attending from Bryan were County Agent C. L. Beason, County Home Demonstration Agent Miss Laura Belle Roten, Secretary S. E. Eberstadt of the Bryan and Brazos county chamber of commerce; Miss Lillian Howard of Canton, Miss, who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. E. H. P. Bain, and H. D. Cuykendall, of the Bryan Daily Eagle. Those visiting from Bryan, two car loads, were caught in the rain on the way home, but only for a short distance in the vicinity of Wellborn. It was noted that the rain at least at that time extended for only a distance of about three miles below Wellborn and it is likely that Millican received no rain on Monday night either, she having missed it on Sunday night—though that section is rather badly in need of rain.

FIRE DEPARTMENT IN FAREWELL DINNER TO DRIVER J. J. CONROY

The Bryan Fire Department tendered a farewell dinner last night at the Kaufman Cafe to J. J. Conroy, driver of Company No. 1, who is leaving tonight for California, where he will visit a brother. He does not know whether or not he will return to Bryan. He will go by way of Houston, where his mother will join him in the trip. The dinner was given at 8:30 o'clock and the following were present: J. J. Conroy, Sam Noto, J. W. Groginsky, Harry Burger, Oscar Gregg, Jeff Cole, J. W. Hamilton, W. B. Saunders, C. E. Haneser and T. G. Jenkins. At the close of the dinner it was announced that a Firemen's Emblem medal or badge would have been presented to Mr. Conroy at this time but that it had failed to arrive in time and would have to be forwarded to him.

METHODIST GROUPS IN MISSION LESSONS

Group No. 1 of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist church met with Mrs. W. C. Boyett of College Monday afternoon at three o'clock. Mrs. A. K. Short conducting the devotional services and Mrs. W. B. Cline leader of Mission Study, the topic being "Building With India." The group was glad to welcome Mrs. George Barnes as a new member. At the close of the meeting a delicious course was served to the following members: Mesdames C. L. Eden, W. B. Cline, J. O. Tucker, George Barnes, Josie Lawrence, R. B. Welch, Cora Hamilton, J. E. Priddy, A. K. Short and W. C. Boyett.

Mrs. Bailey Hostess
Group No. 4 of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church held a splendid meeting Monday afternoon with Mrs. G. H. Brown, Mrs. L. E. Bailey, chairman, lead the devotional and presided over the business session. "Building With India" the topic for the mission study was lead by Mrs. M. R. Bentley. Those present were: Mesdames M. R. Bentley, L. E. Bailey, G. H. Brown, B. T. Poole, E. J. Gurley, Oak McKenzie, H. H. Seale, E. C. Harder, C. R. Gardner, E. A. Miller and Mrs. Harry Eberly, a visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Wicker Kirk are spending the week in Houston and Galveston.

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, May 16.—The third called session of the 38th legislature was not yet under way at ten o'clock this morning the time set in the call by Gov. Neff, less than 24 hours after the close of the second called session. The session was called to deal with revenue and appropriation matters, under the governor's proclamation issued last night. The governor's action in calling another session followed conferences with leaders of both houses. Because of the defeat in conference the committee of the Dinkley Income Tax Bill, it is estimated that the state will face a deficit of $7,000,000 before the close of the next biennium. It is to provide revenue to meet such an emergency that the third special session is called.

BILLS RE-INTRODUCED
AUSTIN, May 16.—Twenty-three members of the senate answered the roll call this morning. Senator H. L. Lewis of Grimes county was elected President pro tem over Joe Burkett of Eastland. A hundred and seven members were present at the opening of the house. Twelve measures, virtually all of which failed at the previous session, were re-introduced. The Coffee Tax Bill was also introduced.

DR. W. N. SHOLL LEAVES FOR MONTREAL, NORTH CAROLINA, GEN. ASSEMBLY

Dr. W. N. Sholl leaves tomorrow, Tuesday, morning for Montreal, N. C., where he will attend as one of the four commissioners from the Brazos presbytery, the general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church. He expects to be gone about two weeks, stopping over on the way home to visit relatives in Birmingham and New Orleans.

DEATH OF MRS. BURNS
Mrs. J. B. Sanders went to Iola today to attend the funeral services of her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Burns who died in Houston Sunday, May 13th at 1 p. m., and whose remains were brought to Iola for interment. Mrs. Burns was 83 years, and 1 month old. She had often made her home in Bryan with her niece, Mrs. J. B. Sanders and family and formed many friends, here, who will mourn with the relatives in her death.

I. MANILOFF HOME

I. Maniloff has just returned from an extensive buying and pleasure trip to northern and eastern points, being accompanied by his little daughter, Sara Reva. In Memphis he attended the district session of B'nai B'rith, embracing the southern states. The next meeting of this order will be held at Alexandria, Louisiana and its purpose for the year is to build a half million dollar home for aged members.

MAY TERM DISTRICT COURT BEGUN TODAY GRAND JURY IS NAMED

The May term of district court convened this morning at the court room at the courthouse with Judge W. C. Davis, 85th district on the bench and the following officers: J. W. Barron, district clerk; L. E. Moorehead, sheriff; Oak McKenzie, county attorney; and R. M. McDonald, court stenographer. The morning was consumed with the judge's charge to the grand jury and the setting of the civil docket for the week. The following is the personnel of the grand jury selected: Lee Burley, H. E. Randolph, Walter Smith, Kan Kelly, Tom A. Adams, H. C. Fulgham, foreman; P. Danahy, J. S. Mooring, J. Webb Howell, Tom G. Suber, J. W. Harris, T. L. Tobias. Bailiffs of Grand Jury: H. T. Wheeler, J. L. Hensarling, R. Y. McFerron, D. D. Jolly, Hardy Weedon, J. S. Byars, Wil Conrad, Fort Martin, Powell Harvey, W. J. Meade.

ADRIANCE NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Adriance have let the contract to Lee Mike of Bryan for the erection of a six room bungalow in College Park, just south of A. & M. College. It is to be a combination of stucco base and lumber, with six rooms, porches and all modern conveniences.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASSES OF PRESBYTERIAN IN BANQUET TO ALLEN CLASS TONIGHT

The two men's Bible classes of the Presbyterian church will give a banquet tonight at which 40 to 50 plates will be laid for the Presbyterian class of the Allen military academy. It will be in the nature of a farewell reception as many of the members of the class will graduate from Allen this year. Others will return next year to take up the work again.

HONORED RESIDENT OF BRYAN, S. H. FRANKLIN, DIED AT GALVESTON

S. H. Franklin, an honored resident of Bryan for many years, passed away at St. Mary's Infirmary, at Galveston on Sunday morning at 4 o'clock. Deceased had been quite ill at his home in this city for the past two months, and was taken to Galveston for treatment by specialists. All that medical skill and nursing could do to bring him back to his usual health was done, but to no avail, and the end came quietly and peacefully at the above stated time.

S. H. Franklin was born at Iola, Texas, October 16, 1861, and moved from Iola with his father, W. P. Franklin and family in 1881, and has made this city his home since then. He was married to Miss Lena White of this city. Deceased is survived by his widow, eight children, five brothers and two sisters: Children, Mrs. A. D. Alexander, Innis; Mrs. Johnnie Johnson, Galveston; Mrs. U. M. Williams, Bryan; Miss Mabel Franklin, Lake Charles; Mr. Bert Franklin, Houston; Mr. Kent Franklin, U. S. Navy; Mr. Harrison Franklin, Bryan; Brothers, J. M. Franklin, W. T. Franklin, Runnels county; H. B. Franklin, Kansas; T. H. Franklin, Bryan; J. D. Franklin, Houston. Sisters, Mrs. B. E. Maxwell, Iola and Mrs. Alice Robinson of Iola.

The funeral was conducted from the family residence on North Washington avenue, Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, his pastor, Dr. John A. Held officiating.

RELATIVE OF BRYAN RESIDENTS DIES AT IOLA THIS MORNING

G. W. Turner of Iola died there at 8 a. m. today after a long illness. Mr. Turner was a brother of J. T. Turner and of Mrs. T. P. Gilmore of Bryan. He was 48 years of age and leaves one son and two daughters. The funeral will be held at 3 p. m. Tuesday, interment in the Iola cemetery. J. T. Turner and son, Ralph, and Mrs. Gilmore and son, T. O. of Bryan, are there for the funeral.

EDWIN JENKINS HOPEFUL

(From Friday's Daily)
E. J. Jenkins came up from Houston this morning to spend today and Saturday in Bryan looking after business interests. He brings the good news that his son, Edwin, is hopeful of the present X-ray treatment giving him relief from his serious illness, and that he stood the trip from Galveston to Houston splendidly. Mrs. E. J. Jenkins and Mrs. E. G. Jenkins and baby are domiciled at 811 Lamar avenue, Houston, Texas, and their friends may reach them there. Interested and anxious friends will hear this news gladly.

NEW COTTAGE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Lockard are having a six room cottage home erected on College Boulevard. The contract was let to W. H. Robinson and it is expected to be completed by June 1st for Mr. and Mrs. Lockard to occupy. These beautiful new cottage homes are springing up on College avenue like mushrooms over night, and are adorning the roadway with civic beauty and attractiveness.

SPEND THE DAY PARTY

(From Friday's Daily)
Mesdames J. T. Hanway, M. L. Parker and children, R. L. Hearne and son Bobbie, Emmett Cole of Fort Worth, enjoyed a spend-the-day party Wednesday with Mrs. Floyd Young of Corsicana, at the Mooring plantation, who is there for a visit to her uncle, Mr. J. S. Mooring.

NO REVIVAL SERVICES HELD SUNDAY NIGHT AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The rain succeeded in drowning out the revival services Sunday night at the Christian church but a splendid program was given at the morning Mothers' Day program was given. Special seat reservations had been reserved for the mothers and each was given a flower at the doorway, to wear as is customary on this day. The sermon was prepared for this occasion and dwelt on the influence and love of mother. There was a good attendance, the church being comfortably filled.

J. S. Byars of the Reliance community was called to Bryan this morning by the convening of district court. He reports the heaviest rain of the spring in that section on Sunday night.

Tom Suber and Charles Crawford motored to Belton Sunday and spent the day visiting friends.

QUARREL OVER NEGRO GIRL ENDS IN FATAL SHOOTING EARLY SUNDAY

One Negro Kills Another in Quarrel Over Girl Following Night of Revelry at Negro Tenant House on Cameron Ranch—Tate Killed Instantly and Dan Wilson Is Under Arrest.

Booker T. Tate is dead and Dan Wilson is in the county jail on a serious charge in connection with the fatal shooting which occurred about 4:30 o'clock Sunday morning as the climax of a negro festivity which held forth almost all night in a negro tenant house on the Cameron ranch, about seven miles northwest of Bryan. According to information from witnesses as gleaned by Sheriff L. E. Morrehead, Wilson took the girl by the arm as if to take her home from the party and turning, shot Tate through the abdominal region, just below the lungs. Whether the attack was provoked or not, has not been ascertained, but a pistol of the .25 calibre was found near the corpse at the inquest and an extra clip of cartridges to fit the same pistol were found in a pocket of the dead negro. Wilson was apprehended Sunday afternoon by officers. He was attending a negro baseball game on Cedar Creek. Witnesses have been given summons to appear before the grand jury in session, tomorrow, at the court house for an investigation of the killing.

MISS PIPKIN ON HONOR ROLL AT BAYLOR COLLEGE

The many friends of Miss Louise Pipkin, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Pipkin of this city, note with pride, that for excellence of scholarship and deportment at Baylor College, Belton, she is named one of forty young ladies of that institution on the honor roll. When it is remembered that there are 1400 students at Baylor College this year, Miss Pipkin's attainment of success is the more evident. Bryan is proud in being the home city of this splendid young woman.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Beverly Tucker accompanied the Camp Fire Girls to Hurt's farm, where they enjoyed the afternoon gathering ferns. Later in the afternoon they returned to the home of Mrs. Tucker and enjoyed making candy. Mrs. L. H. Tucker, of Bryan, was an honor guest. — Navasota Examiner-Review.

MARRIAGE LICENSE FOR BRAZOS COUNTY

The following is a list of the marriage licenses issued by County Clerk A. S. McSwain since the last previous publication: John Williams and Pauline Foster, Frank Niederkorn and Pauline Kirwin, C. A. Taylor and Cressie Belle Easton, DeWitt Green and Clara Steen, T. W. Gafford and Mollie Watson, Will Johnson and L. E. Ward, W. C. Nichols and Alice Davis Crenshaw, Johnnie Wharton Green and Viola Duren, Isham White and Nannie Walters, Reid Fitzgibbons and Gladys Edinburg, R. R. Burs and Donnie Patterson, Clifford Anderson and Cora Robertson, Booker T. Robertson and Minnie Cheeks, Wesley Evans and Mary Washington, Ed Turner and Susie Cameron, Joseph Neloms and Ora Walker.

JORDAN T. LAWLER IS PLANNING RUN POWER PLANT WITH OWN OIL

(Special to the Eagle)
Jordan T. Lawler has a power plant at Floresville. He also has considerable acreage near the plant. He recently sold off some of the acreage and a well was put down on this land sold. Tracings of oil were found at 700 feet and they went on down to 1500 feet and got a twenty-barrel well. So, Mr. Lawler plans on putting down a well on his acreage and if he does not get oil in commercial quantities he figures that he can use a small well in furnishing the fuel for the plant and thus conserve this big factor in the expense item. It is possible that he may find oil in sufficient quantity to make it marketable, and then—the usual story of wealth overnight.

BACCALAUREATE NEXT SUNDAY MORNING AT METHODIST CHURCH

The Baccalaureate sermon for the Bryan high school will be given next Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock hour and will be preached by the Reverend L. L. Lloyd, pastor of the McAshan Methodist church at Houston. Special music will be furnished by the High school chorus and special reservations of seats will be made for the members of the graduating class not in the chorus and for teachers and parents of graduates. All preparations have been completed for the occasion. The graduating exercises will take place on Friday, May 25, and full announcement as to these will be made the first of the week.

BRYAN DELEGATION ALL WIN RECOGNITION IN EASTERN STAR WORK

A party consisting of Mesdames J. R. Wright, H. P. Smith, George Smith, Thomas Lundin, W. F. Davis, Tom Higgs, M. R. Bentley and Miss Mary Tauber, returned late Tuesday evening from Madisonville, where they attended an Eastern Star School of Instruction. All report having enjoyed a very helpful meeting from an instructional standpoint, and have declared the hospitality of Madisonville people to be most genuine.

The trip was made by auto to Navasota, thence by train to Madisonville and return. The Bryan party was joined at Navasota by Mrs. Norton B. Wellborn, associate grand matron for the state of Texas, Mrs. Mattie B. Tadlock, of the committee on work, Mrs. Pearl Walling, deputy grand matron for the fourth district, and several members of the Navasota chapter. Enroute to Madisonville the party grew with the addition of Mrs. Maude Siddall, grand Ruth, at Anderson; Mrs. Erma Skelton, a past assistant district deputy, and Mrs. Nannie Yeager, a present assistant district deputy at Bedias; and several other delegates and members, so that they reached Madisonville with about twenty in number. The Bryan delegation on all passed satisfactory examinations in the work adding four certificates of Grade "A," one of Grade "B," and three in the secret work to the credit of Bryan chapter. A splendid fellowship results from the meetings, where mutual helpfulness is the keynote, and the ladies express themselves as being eager already to begin plans to attend a nearby meeting next year.

BRAZOS EX-STUDENTS A. & M. COLLEGE PLAN GET-TOGETHER SMOKER

(Special to the Eagle)
The 125 A. & M. college ex-students of Brazos county will join the 180 seniors and second year two-year men in a rousing big get-together smoker Friday, May 25, at 7:30 p. m. in the auditorium of the electrical engineering building. The program for this meeting is being worked out in co-operation with the officers of the senior class, and will consist, in the main, of music, yells and short, peppy talks by seniors and ex-students. It is expected that arrangements will be made to receive an address from a well known A. & M. man, by radio.

Last Meeting of Year
Plans for entertaining the several hundred ex-students who are expected to return to college for commencement will be discussed. This is to be the last meeting of the Brazos County Ex-Students' club until school opens next fall. Yells and songs will be lead by Cadet Yell Leader L. E. Short and W. W. Wipprecht.

MISS MARY MCINNIS NOW CRITICALLY ILL. HOMAN SANITARIUM, EL PASO

Major and Mrs. L. L. McInnis received a telegram this morning telling them of the critical illness of their daughter, Miss Mary McInnis, who has been in Homan Sanitarium for the past several months seeking health, and all reports were that she was steadily improving and the sudden change comes as a great shock to her many friends. Major and Mrs. McInnis left immediately for El Paso and with them goes the prayers of their many friends that all will be well.

BRYAN WEEKLY EAGLE

Entered at the postoffice at Bryan, Texas, April 23, 1912, as second class matter under act of congress March 8, 1878.

RATES—DAILY
By Mail — In advance, in Brazos County:
One month$.75
Three months2.25
Six months4.00
One year7.50

By Carrier — In advance:
One month$.75
Three months2.25
One year7.50
WEEKLY EAGLE in Brazos County $1.50 per year; six months, $1.00. Published Thursday.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas lost two of its most distinguished men the past week when Judge J. C. Scott of Franklin and Hon. Lee J. Rountree of Bryan were called by death. The passing of these men removes from the state two leading citizens who have spent their lives in the service of the state and people and their places will be hard to fill. Judge Scott was district judge of this district for many years and was widely known and esteemed for his fair and impartial decisions, while Mr. Rountree was a member of the legislature and a real newspaper man of the old school. He was at one time president of the National Editorial association, composed of leading editors of the United States, and was probably one of the widest known newspaper men in the country. Central Texas and the entire state are mourning the demise of these distinguished citizens and their passing leaves a niche that will be hard to fill. Peace be to their ashes.—Franklin Texan.

The Texas State Historical Association, in twenty-seventh annual session at Austin, elected the following officers: Mrs. Adele B. Looscan of Houston, president; A. J. Houston of La Porte, Alex. Dienst of Temple, George W. Tiler of Belton and T. F. Harwood, Gonzales, vice presidents; Charles W. Ramsdell of Austin, secretary-treasurer; Prof. E. T. Miller of Austin and Samuel E. Ashbury of College Station, members of the executive council.

Now that we have gotten Bryan cleaned up for the visit of the League of Texas Municipalities, let's continue to keep it clean. We can prevent many of the numerous summer ills if we will only see to it that our premises are clean and that no stagnant water stands on our own or our neighbor's premises.

THE ADVERTISED STORE.

Some people get the idea that there is a lot of profiteering in retail trade. If these folks only realized the true condition of affairs they would realize the retail stores are doing business today on a smaller margin of profit than ever before. The higher range of prices prevailing since the war has stimulated competition and has forced retail trade to remodel its system of operation and make every possible improvement and economy in its methods. The stores are saving a margin for the public as the result of improved distribution methods. Merchants today are putting more brains into their work than ever before. They get better expert advice, they understand markets better, they train to help to render better service. The best way to make the people of McKinney realize the fine quality of the service they get from their stores, is by consistent advertising of those stores. As they read the newspaper advertising people learn about special chances to buy goods which they would never have known about had it not been for those notices. They learn that stores are carrying lines that they knew nothing about. They get information warning them of conditions that tend toward higher prices, and showing how they can save money by prompt purchasing. They find out that their home merchants have been scouring the country to pick up the best merchandise available. They discover that their home stores are working with all their might to provide the necessities and conveniences of life at the lowest possible price consistent with substantial merit. The advertised store is the appreciated store.—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

VISITOR TO EAGLE

Colonel Tom Finty, Jr., editor of the Dallas Journal, paid a call to the Eagle office and to Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, after the close of the convention of the League of Texas Municipalities, which he had attended and which he had on different occasions addressed. Being editor of a publication and a newspaper man of years of experience, the talk naturally turned to this line and Mr. Finty talked on the future of the Eagle under Mrs. Rountree's management, hoping that she would carry on and carry out the high ideals and the right policies inaugurated by Mr. Rountree during the period he was editor and manager. Mr. Finty expressed to Mrs. Rountree his sympathy in her great loss in the great loss to the entire state and which was not hers alone, and assured his assistance in any way possible at any time it might be needed.

REAL POETRY

'Twas midnight in the cellar,
And dad was in a stew;
For Johnny ate the raisins—
The raisins for the brew.

'Twas midnight in the woodshed
After Johnny at the raisins,
Pa couldn't raise an old time stew
And Johnny got a hazing.

TRIBUTES TO PASSING OF A SON OF TEXAS

"For myself, as President of the Texas Conservation Association, whose members and supporters throughout the state have held in high appreciation the splendid public service of Hon. Lee J. Rountree, I desire to pay tribute to his work in interest of the conservation and development of our great wealth of natural resources, and to his valuable co-operation in securing important legislation in the advancement of the association's reclamation and flood control program."

The above being the introductory paragraph of a letter of tribute from Hon. Leonard Tiltonson, Sealy, Texas. A personal letter accompanying it requested that publication be given these few loving thoughts from the president of the Texas Conservation Association as he said: "I am desirous of giving public expression to the appreciation in which I held the talents and the work of Mr. Rountree."

"Since Mr. Rountree's entrance into the legislature he has been looked upon as one of the outstanding figures in that body, whose vigorous advocacy of those measures calculated to increase the greatness of his state and advance the welfare of the people, attracted universal attention and commanded the popular approval. His patriotism was of that splendid type that preserved the traditions as well as the ideals of the generations that are past, and blended them with the aspirations of the progressive spirit that is looking to the future. He knew Texas as well as any man of his time, and no one surpassed him in appraisal of its magnificent possibilities for development. His work in the interest of education and of social improvement was the work of a lifetime; and to the work of aiding in establishing a constructive state public policy in the material development of our resources, through adequate legislation in the advancement of reclamation and flood control, he brought an intelligent appreciation of its needs, and an energy that was characteristic of his efforts in all things in which he believed."

"Lee Rountree was not the representative of a single section, but of all sections of our great state, with its diversity of interests. Texas needs many men like him and the people will miss him."

Hon. Lee J. Rountree, founder of the "Flowers for the Living Club," editor of the Bryan Eagle and member of the State Legislature, dropped dead while at his desk in the house of representatives Wednesday afternoon. A large bouquet of flowers had just been sent to Mr. Rountree by friends who knew he was sincere in his slogan of "Flowers for the Living," in appreciation of his work in the Legislature. He had just spoken to a point of personal privilege regarding this presentation and sat down, when the call of "thirty" came to him. Lee Rountree was a central, outstanding figure in Texas politics and served one term as president of the National Editorial Association, and had a large national personal acquaintance. For several years he has been a member of the House of Representatives and his work there for A. & M. college has been such that it will provide a monument to his memory. He has been active in the affairs of the Press Association, rarely missing a meeting of any character and his editorials will be missed by the Texas press, his absence at the meetings will be keenly felt and his counsel in matters for the good of the association and especially in legislative lanes will be seriously missed. Lee Rountree was our personal friend, he has been for years, and to Mrs. Rountree we wish to say:

"Out of the big wide world they come and pause for a word, and go out into the world again and gone gone as the leaves that blow. Down airy lanes, and their names fade out but if they have brought a smile. Then the Memory of them out lasts their name and stays for the longest while."—Richardson Echo.

It is said that after one of those great speeches that no one could make like just Sargent Smith Prentiss could, he sank almost in a faint from exhaustion into the arms of admirers and that one of them whispered: "Die, Prentiss, die; you will never have a more glorious death."

So Lee Rountree, glorious in his unselfish service of his state, met the sword of the grim reaper at the battle front, and died amid a blaze of glory, at the conclusion of a great speech eulogizing Hood's Texas Brigade, acknowledging the compliment they had paid him in a bouquet of Texas flowers sent him by the survivors of that noble band. It would take a page of this paper to even chronicle, without descending at length upon any of them, the various services to this state in which Lee Rountree has been engaged since his early manhood and culminating in the sacrifice of his life upon the altar of public service, which was literally true in his case, as his death was the direct result of long hours and faithful vigil of this noble warrior for the public weal. It has been known by his friends for quite a time that he was working with far too much intensity, and though comparatively a young man, only 54 years old, he was already prematurely old and traveling the pace that kills, not for private gain nor selfish pleasure, but for the best ideals and traditions, and for ambitions that comprehend only the greater grandeur and glory of our common country.

Little did the faithful wife think yesterday afternoon, as we see her in our mind's eye—as we have seen her in fact—directing the large force of highly trained employees necessary to the turning out of such a creditable newspaper as the Bryan Eagle, making the sacrifice of time and pleasure—and what is more dear to the heart of a woman—the care of her home, (in order that her gifted husband might serve his district and his state at a monetary compensation less than the expenses of living there) that he would fall in his line of duty, leaving her to face life's burdens alone.

Drafted by a mass meeting of Bryan's citizens, during his absence from home, to serve that district in the State Legislature, he responded nobly to the call of duty, and in his two terms of service his name has been connected with many important and constructive legislative acts as has been the fortune of any man who ever sat in the legislative councils of this great state.

While death is always sad, whether it takes the cooling babe or the old man or woman tottering upon a staff, whether it comes after a long illness, or as the lightning stroke from the cloudless sky, let his friends and loved ones comfort themselves in the thought that "God knoweth best and He doeth all things well." We are reminded of the words of one who said at his brother's tomb:

"He had not passed on life's highway the stone that marks the highest point, but being weary for a moment he laid down by the wayside, and using his burden for a pillow, fell into that dreamless sleep that kisses down his eyelids rapidly. While yet in love with life, and raptured with the world, he passed to silence and pathetic dust. Yet, after all, it may best, just in the happiest, sunniest hour of all the voyage, while eager winds are kissing every sail, to dash against the unseen rock, and in an instant hear the billows roar a sunken ship."

But our departed friend, and the countless host throughout Texas who loved him for his noble qualities, do not believe that death marks the end of all, but rather more glorious and transcendent life of which he so often spoke. We believe with the poet Longfellow:

"There is no death! What seems so is transition;
This life of mortal breath,
Is but a suburb of the life elysian,
Whose portal we call death."

—Hearne Democrat.

DALLAS A. & M. CLUB ASKS PUBLICATION OF ROUNTREE RESOLUTION

DALLAS, May 11.—Editor Bryan Daily Eagle, Bryan, Texas. Dear Sir: Please publish this in your paper as soon as you can conveniently do so. Very truly yours, A. S. Legg, secretary-treasurer Dallas A. & M. club.

Resolution
At a regular meeting of the Dallas A. & M. club held on Friday, May 11, 1923, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, It has pleased the Great Architect of the universe to remove from our midst our late friend and statesman, Honorable Lee J. Rountree; and

"Whereas, It is but just that a fitting recognition of his many virtues should be had; therefore be it

"Resolved, By the Dallas A. & M. club, that while we bow with humble submission to the will of the Most High, we do not the less mourn for our friend and statesman, who has been taken from us.

"Resolved, That, in the death of Honorable Lee J. Rountree, this club laments the loss of a true friend who was every ready to proffer the hand of aid to the A. & M. college of Texas; an honorary member of this club, whose utmost endeavors were exerted for its welfare and prosperity; a friend and a companion, who was dear to us all; a citizen whose upright and noble life was a standard of emulation to his fellows; a statesman among statesmen.

"Resolved, That the heartfelt sympathy of this club be extended to his family in their affliction.

"Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this club, and a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of our deceased friend, and to the press.

DALLAS A. & M. CLUB,
A. Y. SHIELDS,
R. T. SHIELDS,
M. S. CHURCH,
Committee.

FRIENDSHIP

The friendship worth while,
Is the kind that will stick,
When the trouble of life,
Are crowding us thick.

—Mineral Wells Index.
The friendship worth while—
Not unusual nor odd.
Is the friendship of Love
In the Kingdom of God.

—Bryan Eagle.
The friendship worth while
Never asks, Will it pay?
It seeks only to serve
As it passes th's way.

—Alpine Avalanche.

THINGS MEN LIE ABOUT

Maybe George Washington did not and maybe he did, but there are certain things that all men lie about, without exception. For example, all lie about—
The population of their towns.
The time they have been waiting for a phone number.
Miles on a gallon.
Length of a fish.
Speed of the car (a) to an officer, (b) to a friend.
How hard they work (a) to a friend, (b) to the boss.
Value of property (a) when insured; (b) when taxed.—Menard Messenger.

SAVING THE BABIES

They tell us in Germany the angels who watch over the babies go on the theory expressed in John Hay's "Little Breeches":
"I think that saving a little child and bringing him to his own, is a durned sight better business than loafing around the throne."

Read all Eagle advertisements.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEON TO LEAGUE DELEGATES RESOLVES ITSELF INTO ROUNTREE MEMORIAL

"The only knockers in Bryan are those you (delegates) heard working on new business and residence homes, while driving about town", said Secretary S. E. Eberstadt of the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce, in his opening speech after President Gordon, at the luncheon Thursday noon had welcomed the delegates in a few words and turned the presiding officer over to the secretary. He spoke glowingly of the organization which he so capably represents, stating that one of its greatest accomplishments was the institution in Bryan of the City Manager, City Commission form of government. He then called on each member of his board of directors, asking them to stand as a introduction to everyone. The names of those absent were read and at the close was called the name of Hon. Lee J. Rountree, late fellow-director, Eberstadt calling upon all present to rise in their seats for a moment in silent tribute to the departed, introducing the name with the preface "a name of a man whom every citizen of Bryan and College loved, a man who died just a little over a week ago at Austin, Texas, fighting for Bryan, A. and M. College, and every little red school-house in the State of Texas; and as a tribute to his memory, I call upon you to rise in your seats."

Wonderful Tribute By Lea.
Following the singing of two songs in which the entire delegation participated, lead by Shep Shepard of Wichita Falls "I Bought a Goat" and "And When I Die", Mayor W. E. Lea of Orange, newly-elected president of the League, prefaced a wonderful, spirited and glowing tribute to Mr. Rountree. The whole luncheon seemed to partake of a memorial dinner to his honor.
Mr. Lea said: "I often recall my life at Georgetown, back in the early days when Lee Rountree was editor of the Georgetown paper. Many of the boys going to college at Southwestern had ambitions in a literary way. Lee fostered those ambitions to the fullest extent. He would print things for us boys in his paper that today would be ashamed of because of the paucity of thought. His greatest attribute was his intense humanity. One of the things religion has given to this earth, over and above the principals that has been handed down by Mosaic Law was 'Intense Humanity' which I treasure. That humanity can be translated into one word, 'Love', 'Love for your Fellow-Man.' And Lee J. Rountree had that in the supreme degree. Men, Lee Rountree had lived by institutions of learning such as Southwestern University, my alma mater, and A. and A. M. college, a wonderful school, for so many years that he had imbibed the highest attributes, the highest ideals of those great citizens of learning of our state. And, after gazing upon the magnificent picture of youth and future citizenship unrolled before us yesterday on the campus, it is no wonder that Lee Rountree made of himself greater sacrifices than which there is none, to the cause of education, to the cause of citizens today, tomorrow and all down the ages. Lee Rountree's name will live in history and I understand that there is a movement now on foot to build a hall out there that campus and name it Lee Rountree Hall. The citizens of Bryan could build no worthier monument to a citizen of Texas than to secure that appropriation and build that hall and give it that name. Lee Rountree had friends. The high, the low, the rich and the poor, respected and loved Lee Rountree. And you men and women of Bryan know that to the one who still carries that torch, Mrs. Rountree, is largely due, because of her influence and her love and her broad vision, the fact that Lee is today honored and sung in the great places of Texas. I remember her a magnificent woman, and may God sustain her in her efforts to carry on. And men, Lee Rountree was the ideal of most of us, a great southern gentleman; gentleman of the ante-bellum period with all the fire, vigor of youth and of modernism; a man courteous and kind; a man loved by children and dogs, and, as our friend said last night that is a great test. And, men, you have something to revere, something to hold up I charge you of Bryan to make the memory of that life and I assure you that every friend of Lee Rountree in all Texas will rally to the cause to build a hall on the A. and M. school's campus, build it with the dollars of citizens direct from the pockets, if the legislature can not see fit to do it. (Applause) I charge you with that and I believe the citizens of Bryan will carry it out."

Secretary Eberstadt said there could be no more fitting time to adjourn the meeting than with this tribute, for, few were the eyes that were not dimmed with tears as Mr. Lea closed.

REAL POETRY

A worry is but a po'son—
An acid to the wit;
A fishin' pole's the antidote
That neutralizes it.

A worry is but poison,
Why do I all the while?
Just use a little reason
And wear a big, broad smile.

The Fourteenth Annual Journalism Week will be observed at the University of Missouri, School of Journalism, May 21st to 25th. Walter Williams, formerly of Texas, is dean of that celebrated School of Journalism.

Songs By Chorus
The Bryan women's chorus, directed by Gabe Cazell, with Miss Katherine Higgs accompanying on the piano, gave a number and an encore Thursday noon at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon tendered to League delegates. The chorus cast was as follows: Mesdames J. Webb Howell, E. C. Harter, Duke Thornton, Miriam Crute, George A. Adams, Mills P. Walker, A. L. Ward, Gabe Cazell and Miss Helen Held.

Following the singing of two songs in which the entire delegation participated, lead by Shep Shepard of Wichita Falls "I Bought a Goat" and "And When I Die", Mayor W. E. Lea of Orange, newly-elected president of the League, prefaced a wonderful, spirited and glowing tribute to Mr. Rountree. The whole luncheon seemed to partake of a memorial dinner to his honor.

Mr. Lea said: "I often recall my life at Georgetown, back in the early days when Lee Rountree was editor of the Georgetown paper. Many of the boys going to college at Southwestern had ambitions in a literary way. Lee fostered those ambitions to the fullest extent. He would print things for us boys in his paper that today would be ashamed of because of the paucity of thought. His greatest attribute was his intense humanity. One of the things religion has given to this earth, over and above the principals that has been handed down by Mosaic Law was 'Intense Humanity' which I treasure. That humanity can be translated into one word, 'Love', 'Love for your Fellow-Man.' And Lee J. Rountree had that in the supreme degree. Men, Lee Rountree had lived by institutions of learning such as Southwestern University, my alma mater, and A. and A. M. college, a wonderful school, for so many years that he had imbibed the highest attributes, the highest ideals of those great citizens of learning of our state. And, after gazing upon the magnificent picture of youth and future citizenship unrolled before us yesterday on the campus, it is no wonder that Lee Rountree made of himself greater sacrifices than which there is none, to the cause of education, to the cause of citizens today, tomorrow and all down the ages. Lee Rountree's name will live in history and I understand that there is a movement now on foot to build a hall out there that campus and name it Lee Rountree Hall. The citizens of Bryan could build no worthier monument to a citizen of Texas than to secure that appropriation and build that hall and give it that name. Lee Rountree had friends. The high, the low, the rich and the poor, respected and loved Lee Rountree. And you men and women of Bryan know that to the one who still carries that torch, Mrs. Rountree, is largely due, because of her influence and her love and her broad vision, the fact that Lee is today honored and sung in the great places of Texas. I remember her a magnificent woman, and may God sustain her in her efforts to carry on. And men, Lee Rountree was the ideal of most of us, a great southern gentleman; gentleman of the ante-bellum period with all the fire, vigor of youth and of modernism; a man courteous and kind; a man loved by children and dogs, and, as our friend said last night that is a great test. And, men, you have something to revere, something to hold up I charge you of Bryan to make the memory of that life and I assure you that every friend of Lee Rountree in all Texas will rally to the cause to build a hall on the A. and M. school's campus, build it with the dollars of citizens direct from the pockets, if the legislature can not see fit to do it. (Applause) I charge you with that and I believe the citizens of Bryan will carry it out."

Secretary Eberstadt said there could be no more fitting time to adjourn the meeting than with this tribute, for, few were the eyes that were not dimmed with tears as Mr. Lea closed.

Following the singing of two songs in which the entire delegation participated, lead by Shep Shepard of Wichita Falls "I Bought a Goat" and "And When I Die", Mayor W. E. Lea of Orange, newly-elected president of the League, prefaced a wonderful, spirited and glowing tribute to Mr. Rountree. The whole luncheon seemed to partake of a memorial dinner to his honor.

Mr. Lea said: "I often recall my life at Georgetown, back in the early days when Lee Rountree was editor of the Georgetown paper. Many of the boys going to college at Southwestern had ambitions in a literary way. Lee fostered those ambitions to the fullest extent. He would print things for us boys in his paper that today would be ashamed of because of the paucity of thought. His greatest attribute was his intense humanity. One of the things religion has given to this earth, over and above the principals that has been handed down by Mosaic Law was 'Intense Humanity' which I treasure. That humanity can be translated into one word, 'Love', 'Love for your Fellow-Man.' And Lee J. Rountree had that in the supreme degree. Men, Lee Rountree had lived by institutions of learning such as Southwestern University, my alma mater, and A. and A. M. college, a wonderful school, for so many years that he had imbibed the highest attributes, the highest ideals of those great citizens of learning of our state. And, after gazing upon the magnificent picture of youth and future citizenship unrolled before us yesterday on the campus, it is no wonder that Lee Rountree made of himself greater sacrifices than which there is none, to the cause of education, to the cause of citizens today, tomorrow and all down the ages. Lee Rountree's name will live in history and I understand that there is a movement now on foot to build a hall out there that campus and name it Lee Rountree Hall. The citizens of Bryan could build no worthier monument to a citizen of Texas than to secure that appropriation and build that hall and give it that name. Lee Rountree had friends. The high, the low, the rich and the poor, respected and loved Lee Rountree. And you men and women of Bryan know that to the one who still carries that torch, Mrs. Rountree, is largely due, because of her influence and her love and her broad vision, the fact that Lee is today honored and sung in the great places of Texas. I remember her a magnificent woman, and may God sustain her in her efforts to carry on. And men, Lee Rountree was the ideal of most of us, a great southern gentleman; gentleman of the ante-bellum period with all the fire, vigor of youth and of modernism; a man courteous and kind; a man loved by children and dogs, and, as our friend said last night that is a great test. And, men, you have something to revere, something to hold up I charge you of Bryan to make the memory of that life and I assure you that every friend of Lee Rountree in all Texas will rally to the cause to build a hall on the A. and M. school's campus, build it with the dollars of citizens direct from the pockets, if the legislature can not see fit to do it. (Applause) I charge you with that and I believe the citizens of Bryan will carry it out."

Secretary Eberstadt said there could be no more fitting time to adjourn the meeting than with this tribute, for, few were the eyes that were not dimmed with tears as Mr. Lea closed.

Following the singing of two songs in which the entire delegation participated, lead by Shep Shepard of Wichita Falls "I Bought a Goat" and "And When I Die", Mayor W. E. Lea of Orange, newly-elected president of the League, prefaced a wonderful, spirited and glowing tribute to Mr. Rountree. The whole luncheon seemed to partake of a memorial dinner to his honor.

Mr. Lea said: "I often recall my life at Georgetown, back in the early days when Lee Rountree was editor of the Georgetown paper. Many of the boys going to college at Southwestern had ambitions in a literary way. Lee fostered those ambitions to the fullest extent. He would print things for us boys in his paper that today would be ashamed of because of the paucity of thought. His greatest attribute was his intense humanity. One of the things religion has given to this earth, over and above the principals that has been handed down by Mosaic Law was 'Intense Humanity' which I treasure. That humanity can be translated into one word, 'Love', 'Love for your Fellow-Man.' And Lee J. Rountree had that in the supreme degree. Men, Lee Rountree had lived by institutions of learning such as Southwestern University, my alma mater, and A. and A. M. college, a wonderful school, for so many years that he had imbibed the highest attributes, the highest ideals of those great citizens of learning of our state. And, after gazing upon the magnificent picture of youth and future citizenship unrolled before us yesterday on the campus, it is no wonder that Lee Rountree made of himself greater sacrifices than which there is none, to the cause of education, to the cause of citizens today, tomorrow and all down the ages. Lee Rountree's name will live in history and I understand that there is a movement now on foot to build a hall out there that campus and name it Lee Rountree Hall. The citizens of Bryan could build no worthier monument to a citizen of Texas than to secure that appropriation and build that hall and give it that name. Lee Rountree had friends. The high, the low, the rich and the poor, respected and loved Lee Rountree. And you men and women of Bryan know that to the one who still carries that torch, Mrs. Rountree, is largely due, because of her influence and her love and her broad vision, the fact that Lee is today honored and sung in the great places of Texas. I remember her a magnificent woman, and may God sustain her in her efforts to carry on. And men, Lee Rountree was the ideal of most of us, a great southern gentleman; gentleman of the ante-bellum period with all the fire, vigor of youth and of modernism; a man courteous and kind; a man loved by children and dogs, and, as our friend said last night that is a great test. And, men, you have something to revere, something to hold up I charge you of Bryan to make the memory of that life and I assure you that every friend of Lee Rountree in all Texas will rally to the cause to build a hall on the A. and M. school's campus, build it with the dollars of citizens direct from the pockets, if the legislature can not see fit to do it. (Applause) I charge you with that and I believe the citizens of Bryan will carry it out."

Secretary Eberstadt said there could be no more fitting time to adjourn the meeting than with this tribute, for, few were the eyes that were not dimmed with tears as Mr. Lea closed.

Following the singing of two songs in which the entire delegation participated, lead by Shep Shepard of Wichita Falls "I Bought a Goat" and "And When I Die", Mayor W. E. Lea of Orange, newly-elected president of the League, prefaced a wonderful, spirited and glowing tribute to Mr. Rountree. The whole luncheon seemed to partake of a memorial dinner to his honor.

Mr. Lea said: "I often recall my life at Georgetown, back in the early days when Lee Rountree was editor of the Georgetown paper. Many of the boys going to college at Southwestern had ambitions in a literary way. Lee fostered those ambitions to the fullest extent. He would print things for us boys in his paper that today would be ashamed of because of the paucity of thought. His greatest attribute was his intense humanity. One of the things religion has given to this earth, over and above the principals that has been handed down by Mosaic Law was 'Intense Humanity' which I treasure. That humanity can be translated into one word, 'Love', 'Love for your Fellow-Man.' And Lee J. Rountree had that in the supreme degree. Men, Lee Rountree had lived by institutions of learning such as Southwestern University, my alma mater, and A. and A. M. college, a wonderful school, for so many years that he had imbibed the highest attributes, the highest ideals of those great citizens of learning of our state. And, after gazing upon the magnificent picture of youth and future citizenship unrolled before us yesterday on the campus, it is no wonder that Lee Rountree made of himself greater sacrifices than which there is none, to the cause of education, to the cause of citizens today, tomorrow and all down the ages. Lee Rountree's name will live in history and I understand that there is a movement now on foot to build a hall out there that campus and name it Lee Rountree Hall. The citizens of Bryan could build no worthier monument to a citizen of Texas than to secure that appropriation and build that hall and give it that name. Lee Rountree had friends. The high, the low, the rich and the poor, respected and loved Lee Rountree. And you men and women of Bryan know that to the one who still carries that torch, Mrs. Rountree, is largely due, because of her influence and her love and her broad vision, the fact that Lee is today honored and sung in the great places of Texas. I remember her a magnificent woman, and may God sustain her in her efforts to carry on. And men, Lee Rountree was the ideal of most of us, a great southern gentleman; gentleman of the ante-bellum period with all the fire, vigor of youth and of modernism; a man courteous and kind; a man loved by children and dogs, and, as our friend said last night that is a great test. And, men, you have something to revere, something to hold up I charge you of Bryan to make the memory of that life and I assure you that every friend of Lee Rountree in all Texas will rally to the cause to build a hall on the A. and M. school's campus, build it with the dollars of citizens direct from the pockets, if the legislature can not see fit to do it. (Applause) I charge you with that and I believe the citizens of Bryan will carry it out."

Secretary Eberstadt said there could be no more fitting time to adjourn the meeting than with this tribute, for, few were the eyes that were not dimmed with tears as Mr. Lea closed.

Following the singing of two songs in which the entire delegation participated, lead by Shep Shepard of Wichita Falls "I Bought a Goat" and "And When I Die", Mayor W. E. Lea of Orange, newly-elected president of the League, prefaced a wonderful, spirited and glowing tribute to Mr. Rountree. The whole luncheon seemed to partake of a memorial dinner to his honor.

Mr. Lea said: "I often recall my life at Georgetown, back in the early days when Lee Rountree was editor of the Georgetown paper. Many of the boys going to college at Southwestern had ambitions in a literary way. Lee fostered those ambitions to the fullest extent. He would print things for us boys in his paper that today would be ashamed of because of the paucity of thought. His greatest attribute was his intense humanity. One of the things religion has given to this earth, over and above the principals that has been handed down by Mosaic Law was 'Intense Humanity' which I treasure. That humanity can be translated into one word, 'Love', 'Love for your Fellow-Man.' And Lee J. Rountree had that in the supreme degree. Men, Lee Rountree had lived by institutions of learning such as Southwestern University, my alma mater, and A. and A. M. college, a wonderful school, for so many years that he had imbibed the highest attributes, the highest ideals of those great citizens of learning of our state. And, after gazing upon the magnificent picture of youth and future citizenship unrolled before us yesterday on the campus, it is no wonder that Lee Rountree made of himself greater sacrifices than which there is none, to the cause of education, to the cause of citizens today, tomorrow and all down the ages. Lee Rountree's name will live in history and I understand that there is a movement now on foot to build a hall out there that campus and name it Lee Rountree Hall. The citizens of Bryan could build no worthier monument to a citizen of Texas than to secure that appropriation and build that hall and give it that name. Lee Rountree had friends. The high, the low, the rich and the poor, respected and loved Lee Rountree. And you men and women of Bryan know that to the one who still carries that torch, Mrs. Rountree, is largely due, because of her influence and her love and her broad vision, the fact that Lee is today honored and sung in the great places of Texas. I remember her a magnificent woman, and may God sustain her in her efforts to carry on. And men, Lee Rountree was the ideal of most of us, a great southern gentleman; gentleman of the ante-bellum period with all the fire, vigor of youth and of modernism; a man courteous and kind; a man loved by children and dogs, and, as our friend said last night that is a great test. And, men, you have something to revere, something to hold up I charge you of Bryan to make the memory of that life and I assure you that every friend of Lee Rountree in all Texas will rally to the cause to build a hall on the A. and M. school's campus, build it with the dollars of citizens direct from the pockets, if the legislature can not see fit to do it. (Applause) I charge you with that and I believe the citizens of Bryan will carry it out."

Secretary Eberstadt said there could be no more fitting time to adjourn the meeting than with this tribute, for, few were the eyes that were not dimmed with tears as Mr. Lea closed.

Following the singing of two songs in which the entire delegation participated, lead by Shep Shepard of Wichita Falls "I Bought a Goat" and "And When I Die", Mayor W. E. Lea of Orange, newly-elected president of the League, prefaced a wonderful, spirited and glowing tribute to Mr. Rountree. The whole luncheon seemed to partake of a memorial dinner to his honor.

Mr. Lea said: "I often recall my life at Georgetown, back in the early days when Lee Rountree was editor of the Georgetown paper. Many of the boys going to college at Southwestern had ambitions in a literary way. Lee fostered those ambitions to the fullest extent. He would print things for us boys in his paper that today would be ashamed of because of the paucity of thought. His greatest attribute was his intense humanity. One of the things religion has given to this earth, over and above the principals that has been handed down by Mosaic Law was 'Intense Humanity' which I treasure. That humanity can be translated into one word, 'Love', 'Love for your Fellow-Man.' And Lee J. Rountree had that in the supreme degree. Men, Lee Rountree had lived by institutions of learning such as Southwestern University, my alma mater, and A. and A. M. college, a wonderful school, for so many years that he had imbibed the highest attributes, the highest ideals of those great citizens of learning of our state. And, after gazing upon the magnificent picture of youth and future citizenship unrolled before us yesterday on the campus, it is no wonder that Lee Rountree made of himself greater sacrifices than which there is none, to the cause of education, to the cause of citizens today, tomorrow and all down the ages. Lee Rountree's name will live in history and I understand that there is a movement now on foot to build a hall out there that campus and name it Lee Rountree Hall. The citizens of Bryan could build no worthier monument to a citizen of Texas than to secure that appropriation and build that hall and give it that name. Lee Rountree had friends. The high, the low, the rich and the poor, respected and loved Lee Rountree. And you men and women of Bryan know that to the one who still carries that torch, Mrs. Rountree, is largely due, because of her influence and her love and her broad vision, the fact that Lee is today honored and sung in the great places of Texas. I remember her a magnificent woman, and may God sustain her in her efforts to carry on. And men, Lee Rountree was the ideal of most of us, a great southern gentleman; gentleman of the ante-bellum period with all the fire, vigor of youth and of modernism; a man courteous and kind; a man loved by children and dogs, and, as our friend said last night that is a great test. And, men, you have something to revere, something to hold up I charge you of Bryan to make the memory of that life and I assure you that every friend of Lee Rountree in all Texas will rally to the cause to build a hall on the A. and M. school's campus, build it with the dollars of citizens direct from the pockets, if the legislature can not see fit to do it. (Applause) I charge you with that and I believe the citizens of Bryan will carry it out."

Secretary Eberstadt said there could be no more fitting time to adjourn the meeting than with this tribute, for, few were the eyes that were not dimmed with tears as Mr. Lea closed.

Following the singing of two songs in which the entire delegation participated, lead by Shep Shepard of Wichita Falls "I Bought a Goat" and "And When I Die", Mayor W. E. Lea of Orange, newly-elected president of the League, prefaced a wonderful, spirited and glowing tribute to Mr. Rountree. The whole luncheon seemed to partake of a memorial dinner to his honor.

Mr. Lea said: "I often recall my life at Georgetown, back in the early days when Lee Rountree was editor of the Georgetown paper. Many of the boys going to college at Southwestern had ambitions in a literary way. Lee fostered those ambitions to the fullest extent. He would print things for us boys in his paper that today would be ashamed of because of the pauc

Miss Emma Mae Robertson is Crowned Queen of May

With Miss Emma Mae Robertson as queen of the May and ruler of the hour, to whom the actors and actresses paid rightful homage, the May day pageant was given as scheduled on Saturday afternoon between 4 and 6 o'clock, closing with the always-beautiful winding of the May pole by the little folks. Throughout it was a beautiful description, series of tableaux in action, depicting the passing of winter, the fading of spring and the approach of radiant summer. Long and careful direction of the little folks was shown, but the pageant was of such a nature as to be a delight for children to participate in for they are ever fond of the beautiful and of acting out thoughts and things. Everyone present was very well pleased, thought it a most beautiful pageant, and visitors were here from all parts of the country and some from even a greater distance. Following is the program as rendered, with slight changes necessary to make it correct:

Music furnished by the Ernst Orchestra, Bryan High School Orchestra. Josephine Christensen on the xylophone—Lucile Del'homme, pianist. and Lenice Mae Johnson, pianist.

QUEENS HERALDS—Melvin McNeely, Kay Haisell, Milton Morehead, Tom Cortegmella, Morris Wilcox, Chas. Ferguson, Bill Walker, Roy Gibson, Ervin Zimmerman.

QUEEN OF THE MAY—EMMA MAE ROBERTSON
KING—LOUIS PISTOLE

QUEEN'S COURT—Louis Pistole, Martha Williams, James Garland, Eleanor Freeman, Marvin Wallace, Nancy Moore, Ralph Howell, Emma Mae Robertson, Louis Pistole. Marguerite Ann Fairman, Dorothy Hedges, Charles Felker, Jr.

QUEEN'S ENTERTAINERS—CLOWNS—Emmett Hall, William Sholl, Rayson Sutton, Richard Ramsey, Maurice Rice, William Vesmirovsky, James George, Willie Shelton, Allen Withers, Roy Miller, W. T. McDonald. Miss Leila Griffin, Director.

Miss Marguerite Ann Fairman—Dance. Select GROUP OF MAIDENS—Esthetic Number. "THE ROSE". Emma Beason, Ralph Anna Searcy, Mavis Brodgon, Martha Ann Newland, Dorothy Doane, Margaret Grant, Frances Beason, Lelila Law Davis, Frances Locke, Louise Weddington, Fleda Wilcox, Christine Kellett, Merry Lillian Parks, Mabel Jones, Dorothy Maigne, Ida Belle Higgs, Ray Orms, Ruth Wilcox.

Donnie Lou Gilmore—"YOUTH".
THE POPPIES—Lilla Graham Bryan, Mattie Maigne, Louise Viviani, Lalla Dean Randolph, Jewell Sowarby, Florence Means, Alma Broach, Susie Mae Sanders, Thelma Bullock, Ina Capps, Lola Mae Broach, Laura Lee Bird, Mary Henry. Miss McCarty, Director.

PASSING OF AUTUMN—MISS GERTRUDE SIMMS—Esthetic Dance, THE WHIRLWIND. Group of attending maidens, interpretive poses. Sarah Moore Boyett, Thelma Bullock, Lillie Mae Tucker, Juanita Gandy, Mary Tucker, Johnnie Lee Farris, Naomi Tarkington, Ardelia Barron, Mary Jones, Kate Parker, Pauline McCulloch, Nellie Eden, Eula Frances Dunn, Elizabeth Brodgon, Emile Cochran, Louise Martin, Louise Viviani, Lalla Dean Randolph. Rosemary C. Sparkman, Director.

COMING OF WINTER—Presenting Mr. Marvin Wallace, typifying the season.

DANCE OF THE SNOWFLAKES—Allene Gregg, Foy Morton, Ruby Earl Davis, Bessie Maude McGee, Marie Robinson, Lillian Davis, Mary Jane Nall, Margaret Janick, Katie Sausares, Aline Davis, Rena Cash, Frances Fickey, Robbie Broadman, Wilma Goen, Melvyn Jones, Nina Bess Astin, Lois Brown, Shirley Reed Walker, Velma Bond, Nettie Nedbalek, Evelyn Beale, Mohnike Wheeler, Aline Carroll, Evelyn Murray, Katherine Viviani, Anne Palermo, Roma Davis, Ethel Louise Godwin, Frances Davis, Ann Bentley, Iola Barron, Anna D. Held, Silvarine Blackwell, Doris Cobb, Mary Morton, Lillie Kaplan, Lillie Janick, Annie Ruth Ware, Mattie L. Wright, Margaret Pasler, Annette Morrell, Nellie Mae Griffin, Annie Mae.

PANTOMINE OF THE SNOW MEN—Pat Paterson, Percy Tardy, Ross Scanlan, John M. Barron, Sam Palermo, Paul Patranello, Charles Carroll, William Wright, Martelle Dancy, Joe Palermo, Bodie Broadway, Kohler Lobello, Lawrence Smith, Hildred Josey, Roy Martin, Sam Patranello, Gaston Litt, Theodore Martin, Earl Tardy, Johnnie Phillips, Mat Price, Chester Jones, Joe White, Henry Litt, Robert Boriskie, Jno. Patranello, Leon Lobello, W. S. Johnson, Tony Noto, Rupert Delleny.

ICICLES—Lily Rush Walker, Margaret Parker, Mary Viviana, Ruth Johnson, Katherine Henderson, Frances Noto, Opal Brodgon, Maree Wheeler, Bessie Mae Baker, Bessie Kaplan, Evelyn Cahill, Ethel Holmes, Elsie McLeroy, Laurette Janick, Ila Mae Hall, Frances Boriskie, Helen Bird.

A GLEAM OF "SUNSHINE"—Miss Helen Bird
"WINTER" BIDS FAREWELL
—Miss Ruth Lawler, Director.

SPIRIT OF SPRING—Presenting Miss Patti Simms
A DANCE—"THE SPRING SONG"—Set to the Humoresque
Rosemary C. Sparkman, Director.

GROUPS OF WILD FLOWERS.
BLUE BONNETS—Elsie Mae Newcomb, Bessie Lou Wiley, Marie Beers, Jane Elliott, Mary Jane Dunn.
INDIAN BLANKETS—Marie Elizabeth Webb, Ina Mae Todd, Marie Graham, Winona McNeely, Kathleen Bullard, Joyce Smith, PRIM ROSES—Jessie Deason, Inez Smith, Vivian Armstrong, Margaret Plagens, Wilma Holzman.

BUTTER CUPS—Mildred Cloud, Lucile Rosprim, Gussie Ballerstedt, Lindell Henry, Dorothy Graham, Maudelle Wiley.
WILD VIOLETS—Monette Groginsky, Deane Orms, Lois Manly, Bessie Mae Rawls, Catherine Mize, Wava Martin.

CLARET CUPS—Lena Cortegmella, Allie Mae Bullock, Hattie Russell.
CLOVER LEAVES—Lillie Satterwhite, Deasie Vance, Jessie Myrtle Hensarling, Vera Smith.

"SUNSHINE"—Sara Boyett, Mrs. P. A. Tardy and Miss Malcolm McInnis, directors.

"FROG DANCE"—Abram Kaplan, Jake Kaplan, L. D. Graham, Frank Bain, Bradford Seale, Theodore Boriskie, Frank Cash, Claude Slowey, Sam Kaplan, John Heard Astin, Ray Gardner, Osborn Higgs, Willie Boriskie, Albene Zak, Steven Lobello, T. P. Evans, Joe Patranello, Robt. John Persons, Frank Boriskie, Frank Scanlan, Charles Martin. —Miss Ruth Lawler, Director.

"CRICKET DANCE"—Al Patterson, Jr., J. L. Reese, Jr., Lawrence Parker, Davis Grant, Dave Munday, Malcolm Manning, Dave Alsbrook, Lewis Tuck, Ralph Griffin, John W. Black, Lawrence Reppert, James Orms, Russell Hillier, J. C. Rawls, Royas Karnes, Norris Johnson. —Miss Annie Deering, Director.

"SPIRIT OF SUMMER"—Marguerite Del'homme with Little Maids.

BUTTERFLIES—Ruth Smith, Elizabeth Wilson, Frances Thomas, Ethel Ferguson, Josephine Cortegmella, Janie Rosprim, Juarene Higgs, Aline King, Ethel Mae Barr, Edna P. Ramacy, Imogene Bunting, Estelle Wilcox, Pauline Martin, Marguerite Bunting, Emory Deason, Eva Reyna, Evelyn Stanford, Doris Jones, Ethel Thompson, Jane Cavitt, Mary Martha Black, Lois Ramsey, Mary Bess Egan, Estelle Tarkington, Frances James, Edna Earle Bethoe, Edith Jones, Pearl Freeman, Lula Mae Tuck, Betsy Searcy, Charlotte Tarbox, Margaret Ward, Mildred McKenzie, Ollie Ruth Shaw, Jan Singletary, Maurine Neeley, Kathleen Reyna. —Rosemary C. Sparkman, Director.

PARASOLS—Louise Sholl, Marjorie Cavitt, Pansy Odom, Eleanor Chance, Doris Beard, Mozelle Vick, Winnie Vance, Helen Minkert, Gussie Odom, Ellis Ballerstedt, Pauline Davis, Christine Lichte, Maurine Gandy, Naomi Johnson, Jessie Merle Henry, Bertha Humbert. —Miss Lella Griffin, Director.

THE MAYPOLE DANCE—By the Little Tots
Mrs. E. B. Reynolds, Director.

AMERICA—Sung by the Schools

REV. TATUM HOME
Rev. J. J. Tatum returned today from Waco, where he has been for the past week, called there on account of the illness of his little grand-daughter, Hettie Laura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. May. Rev. Tatum went over to Hillsboro Saturday and filled the pulpit of the Free Baptist church there on Sunday, returning to Bryan Monday.

WANTED—Clean rag at the EAGLE Office.

SGT. AND MRS. SMART LEAVE
The many friends of Sgt. and Mrs. George Smart of College regret to learn that they expect to leave College early in June to again make their home in Maine. During the years of their residence at College Station, a host of sincere and loving friends have been theirs, and deepest regret is expressed by all that they are soon to leave us.

Read all Eagle advertisements.

SEC. EBERSTADT AND PRESIDENT COLE EXPLAIN BRYAN PLAN

A party of men representing officials and representatives of the board of directors of the Brenham Chamber of Commerce came down to Bryan yesterday afternoon and were entertained at a dinner at the Bryan Hotel by the Chamber of Commerce, represented by Secretary Eberstadt, at which time Secretary S. E. Eberstadt and President W. H. Cole spent the entire time of the meeting in explaining the Bryan plan of building and loan. The Brenham loan is one that Secretary Eberstadt organized last December and sold at that time $160,000 of the $250,000 stock. The charter has been secured at Brenham and they expect to be ready for business on June 1 as all of the stock has been subscribed. These present at the luncheon were: F. H. Bosse, T. A. Adam, O. E. Baumgart, O. E. Baumgart, Jr., A. A. Winkelmann, Mrs. E. Holtzow and S. E. Eberstadt.

BRAZOS CO. OFFICERS HELP BURLESON ONES CAPTURE TWO STILLS

Sheriff L. E. Morehead, Chief of Police W. S. Martin and Officer John Conlee motored over to Chance's place just across the Brazos river, in Burleson county, and helped the officers from that county make two raids, capture one still with liquor and mash, and a part of another still, and to make one arrest. They left here about 3 o'clock in the morning and returned early in the forenoon.

COLORED WOMAN SHOT IN THIGH BY FORMER HUSBAND CAME HOME

(From Saturday's Daily).
Dessie Hodge, colored woman and a daughter of Rev. D. H. Shivers is suffering from a number of buckshot wounds in her thigh, which, however, did not break the bone and will not necessitate amputation, and Edmund Collins is in the county jail as the result of a shooting at the former's home late Friday afternoon. It seems that the negro girl and her husband were estranged though not divorced. He returned from Western Texas yesterday and shortly after his arrival the shooting occurred.

Officer in Danger

Collins was captured in a barn thick with east of Bryan city cemetery, near the poor house, whither he had wended his way after the affair. The scene of his capture was nearly a mile from the scene of the shooting. Chief of Police Martin made the capture with Mr. Freeman, sexton at the cemetery assisting, while other officers were not far distant. Chief was wending his way down a newly-beaten path through the briar patch when he heard a rustling and there was a negro trying to level a shotgun at him the gun having caught on a briar and gave notice of the negro's proximity. Chief had his gun on the man in record time and the negro decided to abandon his. Nine teen loads of buckshot shells were taken off the negro by officers after he had been placed under arrest.

DR. JOHN A. HELD TO HEARNE TO HELP PEOPLE SEND PASTOR TO EUROPE

(From Saturday's Daily).
Dr. John A. Held motored to Hearne Friday night, having been requested to make the trip to assist the people of that city in laying plans to raise funds to send the pastor of the Baptist church there to Europe, to the Holy Land, the same trip that the congregation of the Bryan church has tendered to Dr. Held. A meeting was held in the church there at which the Hearne pastor was not present, it being of a quiet nature and unbeknown to the minister. This is the second church that Dr. Held is assisting in the effort to secure the splendid trip for the minister, the other being at Navasota.

DELEGATES TO FIREMEN'S CONVENTION HOME AGAIN

(From Saturday's Daily).
Chief Charles Jenkins, John W. Hamilton, DeWitt Graham, Mrs. DeWitt Graham, Mrs. J. M. Dunn and Judge W. C. Davis, all of whom attended the 1923 Firemen's Convention at San Marcos, have returned to Bryan, all but Judge Davis arriving yesterday, he stopping over in Austin to spend the day with the legislators. Judge Davis made the trip down to extend an invitation on behalf of the citizens of Bryan for the State Firemen to hold their 1924 convention in Bryan. The place for the next convention on city was hotly contested by four other towns besides Bryan, McKinney winning the honor.

MAIN STREET IS NOT TO BE RE-SURFACED

(From Saturday's Daily).
At last night's meeting of the city commission it was decided not to re-surface Main street due to objection on the part of a majority of Main street business men and property owners. It is understood that suit had been filed to have the district court set aside the contract between the city and Smith Brothers' Paving Company of Dallas now doing paving work in this city. This was the chief business transacted by the commission, but a full

MANY SOCIAL AFFAIRS FOR CHARMING DALLAS VISITOR

(From Saturday's Daily).
Mrs. M. E. Hayes, formerly of Bryan, but now of Dallas, is here for a visit to friends and has been the inspiration for many small social affairs, each friend claiming a part of her time. On Thursday noon Mrs. M. R. Bentley entertained at luncheon for Mrs. Hayes. The table was tastefully decorated in hand embroidered linen and spring blossoms. Covers were laid for: Mrs. M. E. Hayes, Mrs. H. P. Smith, Thomas Lundine and Mrs. M. R. Bentley.

Mrs. A. P. Swallow claimed Mrs. Hayes for Thursday afternoon for a bridge party. Tables were arranged on the broad veranda at the H. T. Lawler home on College Boulevard. Quantities of spring blossoms with the soft balmy breezes made a delightful environment for the games. A picnic lunch was served at the conclusion of the meeting in explaining the Bryan plan of building and loan. The Brenham loan is one that Secretary Eberstadt organized last December and sold at that time $160,000 of the $250,000 stock. The charter has been secured at Brenham and they expect to be ready for business on June 1 as all of the stock has been subscribed. These present at the luncheon were: F. H. Bosse, T. A. Adam, O. E. Baumgart, O. E. Baumgart, Jr., A. A. Winkelmann, Mrs. E. Holtzow and S. E. Eberstadt.

A mid-day luncheon of delightful informality was given Friday at twelve o'clock when Mrs. T. O. Walton invited a few of Mrs. Hayes' close friends on the A. & M. College campus in to enjoy an hour or so with her.

MRS. BARTON IN DALLAS

Mrs. J. W. Barton was called to Dallas today on account of the death of her cousin, H. H. Wilson, who died suddenly at his home of heart failure. The funeral will be held on Monday, awaiting the arrival of relatives from Kentucky. Mr. Wilson came to Texas nine years ago from Louisville, Ky., and was one of the heads of the Gulf Refining company at the time of his death.

666 quickly relieves Constipation, Biliousness, Headaches, Colds and Grippe.

SECRETARY OF C. OF C. NAVASOTA HAS RESIGNED

NAVASOTA, May 12.—The resignation of John Rieves as secretary-manager of the local Chamber of Commerce has been tendered to the board of directors of that organization and accepted by them. The resignation will become effective June 1. Mr. Rieves came to Navasota in December, 1922.

TWENTY-TWO YEAR OLD RATTLESNAKE KILLED ON FARM NEAR BRYAN

A rattlesnake five feet long and 22 rattlers to tell its age in years, was killed on the M. G. and R. H. Nolls farm about three miles from Bryan, yesterday, Thursday, May 10, by Jim Williams, a Calvert man. This is one of the longest, and perhaps the oldest one killed in this section for several years. Mr. Williams could now go into the market with his catch as rattlesnake market is opening at the present time—they buy them dead or alive, in toto or just the skins. This one ought to bring a good sum in any style delivered.

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred Poland China pigs, $5.00 each, with papers $7.50.—LYNN SAMPLE, Kurton, Texas.

C. G. WALKER HAS A TREASURED ACCOUNTANT'S DIPLOMA OF HIS FATHER

C. G. Walker possesses a most valued accountant's diploma which was issued to his father, William H. Walker on June 27, 1870, in Lebanon, Wilson county, Tennessee. It is yellowed with age, yet the ink is rather plain and shows that the receiver was a graduate of the Cumberland university commercial school and the grades marked on the face of the diploma are exceptionally good, getting the highest grade given in four out of six subjects and the next to the highest in the others.

666

Cures Malaria, Chills and Fever, Dengue or Bilious Fever. It destroys the germs.

REPRESENTATIVE TO NAVASOTA DISTRICT MEET RETURN HOME

District conference of Navasota district of the Methodist church, held at Willis, Texas, closed last night after two days of work. All but one of the pastors of the district were present. A large attendance of laymen were also there. Those in attendance from Bryan and College were Rev. H. C. Will, S. Rev. King Vivion, J. D. McDonald, C. E. Gardner, R. C. Franks, and Messrs. Goodenough, Ainsworth and Clark. Hon. Oak McKenzie was a delegate but official duty prevented his attending, but he and the Bryan church were honored in his election to be delegate to the annual conference. Mr. Marsden Ainsworth, an A. & M. College student, passed an excellent examination and was licensed to preach without a single negative vote.

When your breath is bad, appetite poor, and you feel "blue" and discouraged, you need Herbine. One or two doses will set you right. It is a great system purifier. Price, sizes, 30c, 60c and $1.20 per bottle. Sold by all druggists. (Adv.)

FIREMEN'S CONVENTION PASSES RESOLUTIONS ON DEATH OF ROUNTREE

(Special to The Eagle).

WACO, Texas, May 12.—The following resolution was passed by this association by a unanimous rising vote: "Resolved that in the recent passing of Lee J. Rountree at Austin, Texas, this association has lost one of its true and trusted friends; a man who, at one time, served it as its chief executive officer and who in every other capacity was a loyal member of this association had fulfilled with great credit, every duty devolving upon him; resolved further that expression of our sympathy be tendered to his bereaved ones in the great loss they have sustained. J. L. MEAD, HUBBARD BATTIS V. S. FRITZ, Resolution Committee, of State Firemen's Association of Texas. OLIN CULBERSON, Secretary.

WOMEN'S CLUB PAYS TOUCHING TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF ROUNTREE

Mrs. A. K. Short, who returned home the first of the week from Beaumont, where she was delegate from the Bryan Extension Service club to the Fourth District Federation of Women's clubs in convention on May 3, 4 and 5. A full and complete report of the meetings was given by Mrs. Short before a meeting of the Extension Service club Wednesday afternoon. There was an unusual feature of the meeting in the tribute paid to Mrs. Lee J. Rountree and the memory of her husband, the late Hon. Lee J. Rountree. When Mrs. Rountree's name was called as chairman of publicity, the delegates arose in their seats for one minute of silent prayer while "Nearer My God to Thee" was played in the soft tones of a violin. It was a most touching tribute to the memory of the illustrious statesman and to Mrs. Rountree, who finds the load hard to bear. Few were the eyes that were not dimmed by tears at the close of the tribute.

MISS CAVITT ELECTED DISTRICT SECRETARY CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

The District Christian Endeavor convention held in Navasota was reported by many as the best in Texas this year. One of the principal addresses of the meeting was made by Rev. Wm. N. Sholl, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Bryan on "Responsibility of Knowledge." It was an effective and telling appeal and found a response in the heart of his hearers.

Miss Cavitt Elected

The following officers were chosen: Miss Nellie Schaffer, Houston, secretary; Miss Esther Cavitt, Bryan, assistant secretary; Rev. W. R. Johnson, Galveston, pastor counselor. Galveston was selected for the next meeting place. The many friends of Miss Cavitt are delighted at the deserved honor the Endeavorers gave her in electing her as one of the leaders. Such a willing heart and splendid ability deserves public recognition and all Bryan is proud to claim this splendid young woman as one of her most worthy daughters.

BRYAN GIRLS ENTERED MUSIC MEET BAYLOR

BELTON, Texas, May 12.—Bryan was represented at the second session of the Texas interscholastic music meet held recently at Baylor college of this place. Two hundred and fifty students from 26 high schools were entered in the contests.

Bryan Girls in Contest

Miss Mary Lillie Fountain, who entered the soprano contest, and Miss Aline Smith, who entered the soprano contest, attended the meet from Bryan. First prize in piano, a scholarship under Walter Gilevich of the Baylor college fine arts conservatory, was won by Murrell Dunn, Sour Lake; second prize in piano, a scholarship under Irl L. Allison, was awarded Rhulene Stout, Gatesville. A scholarship in violin under Kenneth Wood was won by Felix L. St. Clair, San Antonio. Bessie Ruth Bickford, Waco, won soprano scholarship under Allie Coleman Pierce, and Gail Hamilton, Waco, won the contralto scholarship under Ethylene Morgan. Two slaver loving cups went to Beaumont for the best quartet and best orchestra, and one to Waco for the best chorus.

Winners Give Concert

Horace Clark, Houston; Clyde E. Whitlock, Fort Worth, and Bernhard Taylor, Fort Worth, were judges. The last evening of the contest, a concert, was given by the winning contestants, the choruses singing en masse directed by Barnhard Taylor, and the combined orchestras playing. An interesting feature of the program was the appearance of three of last year's contestants. Genevieve Camp, Laredo, pianist; Louise Adams, Cameron, soprano, and Camilla Marris, Marble Falls, violinist, gave numbers illustrating the advancement that can be made in one year's study under teachers at Baylor college fine arts conservatory.

A bad sprain heals slowly if not treated with a remedy that has the power to penetrate the flesh. Ballard's Snow Liniment is especially adapted for such ailments. Three sizes, 30c, 60c and $1.20 per bottle. Sold by all druggists. (Adv.)

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPARTMENT

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

"Elbow Grease" Required

The agriculturist would tell us to destroy the grass and weeds which appear in crops during May, but the successful farmer will see to it that grass and weeds do not sap the crops at any time. Improved machinery and implements will facilitate the undertaking, but "elbow grease," mixed with more or less dirt and sweat, will be necessary to put the job over in good shape.

Advice Being Given

The Agricultural Situation, a brief summary of economic conditions, issued monthly by the United States department of agriculture, states that reports indicate that the acreage of cotton will be increased 12 per cent, adding, "Nobody can say much on the production side yet. In agriculture, man proposes but the weather disposes." The report further shows that Georgia's acreage in cotton this year will be 101 per cent compared with last year, while Missouri leads with 200 per cent increase; Texas being reported with 114 per cent increase in acreage planted to cotton. The report says, in speaking of the wave of business activity sweeping the urban community, that farm labor is being drawn, as a result of this activity, from the farms to the cities, and that farm labor is commanding higher wages. This, of course, will tend to increase the cost of farm products this year. This May 1 report presents rather an optimistic outlook and states "This is no time for pessimism," but adds in a concluding paragraph, "This is not much of a time for expansion on the farms, generally speaking. It is a good time to sail close to the wind—to be careful about expenditures, to try to grow at home as much of the family living as possible. The thing for a man to do is to grow what he can this summer and get it to the market in the best shape possible." That seems good advice to follow any year, much less a year like this when we are just trying to recover from a staggering blow dealt us from some source a year or two ago.

Raise Our Feeds

One farmer said that he could raise cotton and buy his feed stuff cheaper than he could raise it. That is figuring cotton at maximum yield and high price and feed stuffs at minimum yields and low price. Not every one who attempts to raise his feed stuff is successful, but pick out the successful farmers and you will see that they raise their own feed at home.

RAISES "SOME" ONIONS

J. B. Priddy has a garden that raises breath perfume in quantity and quality—quantity not only in numbers but in size. He brought a specimen of onion to the Eagle office that is a magnificent "model" for this season's growth and made the statement that it was not a selected prize winner, but just one that had been pulled at random. He said he had plenty more of the same variety.

SHRINE CEREMONIALS WACO ATTENDED BY BIG CLASS OF NOVICES

Spring ceremonials of Karen Temple Shrine, Waco, will be held Tuesday, May 15, and a large delegation will attend from Bryan and College, leaving last night. This promises to be the biggest event in Shrine in the South and great times are anticipated. Some four hundred candidates are booked to tread the hot sands of the desert. The novices going from Bryan and College for initiation are: J. C. Mayfield, C. C. Yates, O. O. Henderson, F. R. Bryson, E. R. Spahr, King Vivion, W. H. Harrell, J. F. Casey, B. J. Allen, B. D. Marburger, Nobles, H. O. Ferguson, H. P. Dancy, Roy Hudspeth, W. B. Roman, W. A. Duncan, W. F. Davis, H. M. Milton, D. E. Baker, C. C. Braden, C. B. Potts, A. I. Parke, W. Price, R. E. Lee, F. E. Lichte, J. R. McKee, A. J. Spieth and Roy C. Stone will chaperone them.

King Vivion Candidate

Each year the candidate voted to be the most popular is given a handsome diamond ring and the friends of Rev. King Vivion have flung his hat in the ring and everybody that loves Aggeland is his campaign manager and trying to win the diamond ring for him.

Grateful for Rain

The fellow who would not be grateful for the refreshing rain that came Sunday afternoon and Sunday night would be like the fellow who always sees the hole in the doughnut rather than sees the doughnut itself. Let us cultivate a spirit of appreciation for the good things that come our way and try to be more tolerant toward our fellow man with whom we are associated. It is our duty to God and our privilege of exemplifying a high standard of living among man kind.

A Bale Per Acre

The neighbors of Fletcher Pool of Millican say that he is not only one of the best farmers in the community, but that he seems to get results with less trouble than most any other farmer. The yields Mr. Pool realizes may be accounted for by the fact that he cultivates few acres, practices crop rotation and plants legumes and cultivates his crops well, always beginning far ahead of planting time. In cotton, a bale per acre is his goal, last year making five bales on five acres; with corn, he usually makes at least 40 to 50 bushels per acre on five or 10 acres. Some time ago we saw this motto in a school room: "What others can do we can do and do it better." If the motto will apply in matters pertaining to school work and school activities, it will also apply to work and accomplishments on the farm.

Beachley Club Meeting

The Beachley Blue Bonnet boys' and girls' club will have regular

Will Hold Visitor's Day

J. H. Chastum, a Barred Rock poultryman in the suburbs of East Bryan, states that it is his intention to have in the near future a visitors' day, when he will be glad to show those interested in better poultry his splendid plant and explain the methods by which he is conducting a successful poultry business on a two-acre plot of land. Watch for Mr. Chastum's announcement, and take advantage of this opportunity to learn some practical things about the poultry business.

Roads Needs Work

That part of the king of trails between Tabor high school and a point about three miles north of Wheelock is in a very bad condition, not only impeding travel but greatly marring the pleasure that might be enjoyed by the traveler, or tourist, in passing through this beautiful and fertile stretch of country. The people of the several communities interested in this particular section of road are desirous of maintaining the designation until the great highway is built from Canada to the gulf, should see to it that this road is made more passable now or at the earliest possible time. To neglect it will mean, sooner or later, that the King of Trails association will change the routing to some other road that will be better for the traveling public, thus leaving this section with such wonderful opportunities and natural resources isolated, or more or less removed from a great national highway. It will be too late to act then.

Raise Our Feeds

One farmer said that he could raise cotton and buy his feed stuff cheaper than he could raise it. That is figuring cotton at maximum yield and high price and feed stuffs at minimum yields and low price. Not every one who attempts to raise his feed stuff is successful, but pick out the successful farmers and you will see that they raise their own feed at home.

RAISES "SOME" ONIONS

J. B. Priddy has a garden that raises breath perfume in quantity and quality—quantity not only in numbers but in size. He brought a specimen of onion to the Eagle office that is a magnificent "model" for this season's growth and made the statement that it was not a selected prize winner, but just one that had been pulled at random. He said he had plenty more of the same variety.

SHRINE CEREMONIALS WACO ATTENDED BY BIG CLASS OF NOVICES

Spring ceremonials of Karen Temple Shrine, Waco, will be held Tuesday, May 15, and a large delegation will attend from Bryan and College, leaving last night. This promises to be the biggest event in Shrine in the South and great times are anticipated. Some four hundred candidates are booked to tread the hot sands of the desert. The novices going from Bryan and College for initiation are: J. C. Mayfield, C. C. Yates, O. O. Henderson, F. R. Bryson, E. R. Spahr, King Vivion, W. H. Harrell, J. F. Casey, B. J. Allen, B. D. Marburger, Nobles, H. O. Ferguson, H. P. Dancy, Roy Hudspeth, W. B. Roman, W. A. Duncan, W. F. Davis, H. M. Milton, D. E. Baker, C. C. Braden, C. B. Potts, A. I. Parke, W. Price, R. E. Lee, F. E. Lichte, J. R. McKee, A. J. Spieth and Roy C. Stone will chaperone them.

King Vivion Candidate

Each year the candidate voted to be the most popular is given a handsome diamond ring and the friends of Rev. King Vivion have flung his hat in the ring and everybody that loves Aggeland is his campaign manager and trying to win the diamond ring for him.

Grateful for Rain

The fellow who would not be grateful for the refreshing rain that came Sunday afternoon and Sunday night would be like the fellow who always sees the hole in the doughnut rather than sees the doughnut itself. Let us cultivate a spirit of appreciation for the good things that come our way and try to be more tolerant toward our fellow man with whom we are associated. It is our duty to God and our privilege of exemplifying a high standard of living among man kind.

A Bale Per Acre

The neighbors of Fletcher Pool of Millican say that he is not only one of the best farmers in the community, but that he seems to get results with less trouble than most any other farmer. The yields Mr. Pool realizes may be accounted for by the fact that he cultivates few acres, practices crop rotation and plants legumes and cultivates his crops well, always beginning far ahead of planting time. In cotton, a bale per acre is his goal, last year making five bales on five acres; with corn, he usually makes at least 40 to 50 bushels per acre on five or 10 acres. Some time ago we saw this motto in a school room: "What others can do we can do and do it better." If the motto will apply in matters pertaining to school work and school activities, it will also apply to work and accomplishments on the farm.

Beachley Club Meeting

The Beachley Blue Bonnet boys' and girls' club will have regular

Read all Eagle advertisements

FOUR CAR LOADS OF NEW DIESEL ENGINE HAVE ARRIVED BRYAN

Four car loads, comprising all the parts of the new internal combustion Diesel Engine ordered by City Manager E. E. McAdams from a St. Louis firm, have arrived in Bryan. One carload, comprising the generator and equipment is yet to come from New York, making five carloads in all. The force will immediately start work in getting the big base on the concrete foundation that has been in for several weeks. An expert will arrive from the factory at St. Louis about the middle of next week and begin the real work of putting the engine together and in operation. When completed the capacity of the Bryan Power Plant, and enable the plant to easily carry its load and to take on additional service through an extension of the transmission lines.

DR. J. N. GOODWIN
Internal Medicine, Diseases of Children, Smith Building, Office Phone 493, Residence Phone 296.

STOP THAT ITCHING
Use Blue Star Remedy for Eczema, Itch, Tetter or Cracked Hands, Ring Worms, Chapped Face, Poison Oak, Sunburns, Old Sores or Sores on Children. It relieves all forms of Sore Feet. For sale by M. H. JAMES DRUG STORE

WARE'S Baby Powder
For Stomach & Bowel Troubles

Ware's Baby Powder is a healing boon to babies for bowel troubles, teething, summer complaint, etc. Mixed with sugar and water into a semi-liquid, babies love to take it. It's safe, quick acting and sure. In two sizes, 50c and $1.00.

M. H. JAMES DRUG CO.

WARE'S BABY POWDER
For Sale By JENKINS DRUG STORE

Keep Your Complexion of Rose-Petal Texture
Nadine Face Powder will keep the roses in your cheeks. It will make your skin soft, smooth and velvety. It will lend an irresistible charm, and the fragrance of the flower garden.

Nadine adheres and protects the skin from sun, wind and dust. Contains no ingredient that can harm the skin or the eyes. Money refunded if not pleased.

50c at your toilet counter. Miniature box by mail 4c. NATIONAL TOILET CO., Paris, Tenn.

NADINOLA
SOLD BY JENKINS DRUG STORE

JENKINS DRUG STORE

Weak Back

Mrs. Mildred Pipkin, of R. F. D. 3, Columbia, Tenn., says: "My experience with Cardui has covered a number of years. Nineteen years ago I got down with weak back. I was run-down and so weak and nervous I had to stay in bed. I read of CARDUI The Woman's Tonic and sent for it. I took only one bottle at that time, and it helped me; seemed to strengthen and build me right up. So that is how I first knew of Cardui. After that, when I began to get weak and 'no account', I sent right for Cardui, and it never failed to help me."

If you are weak and suffering from womanly ailments, Cardui may be just what you need. Take Cardui. It has helped thousands, and ought to help you.

At all druggists' and dealers'.

FOR CARDUI AND BLACK DRAUGHT GO TO JENKINS DRUG STORE

THERE'S REASON WHY TEXAS EGGS STAY AT BOTTOM NEW YORK PRICES

(By County Agent C. L. Beason)
"We permit our hens to eat what they will, to lay where they will, in nests unprotected from rain and sun. The lining of a nest should be as clean as new fresh straw can make it. We gather our eggs once a week and call them fresh. We market fertile eggs in the summer, when the heat is enough to start embryonic growth in 12 hours. We 'lump' all our eggs in one basket regardless of color, condition or size and—pay the price. It's a good stiff price, too. Let's omit the rest of the state and look to ourselves. Figure what San Angelo as a community loses from such methods. There is a difference in the market quotation of 14 cents on the dozen between the price paid for Texas eggs and that paid for California eggs. That's $4.20 a case. Say we ship 50 cases a day. We lose $210 a day by our poor marketing methods. That's more than $1,400 a week that could be in circulation among our merchants. That's nearly $6,000 a month that could be figured in on the bank deposits of this town—if we paid proper attention to marketing the few eggs we do produce."

Co-operate to Advantage
"That extra money is ready to our hand if we care to take it. The key to the door is organized effort. We have to decide to produce the white egg that the market demands; we have to do as the Californians have done. We have to get together. We have to grade our eggs; we have to get them to the market fresh; we have to market as a community, not as individuals. This is the only way we can change that New York notion about our eggs, expressed in that laconic line: California whites 45 cents; Texas and others 31 cents."

The above article is in keeping with the statement recently made by F. W. Kazmeier, manager of the Bryan hatchery, when he said that Brazos county eggs are bringing all they are worth, considering the quality and the manner in which they are marketed, and that the local dealers could afford to pay no more for such eggs.

Texas at the Bottom
The trouble is all eggs are not of this class, but the good eggs are penalized because they are marketed along with others. The remedy is prescribed above. If San Angelo could add to her bank deposits $6,000 a month, what ought we really do in Brazos county where the poultry industry has proven its right to be fostered as one of our leading industries and where the cackle of the standard bred hen is already heard almost an inch rain fell on Monday night.

The heavy rain of Sunday night came back again last night and precipitated nearly an inch of rain, the exact amount being .90 inches, according to the government weather gauge kept by the C. R. Gardner Insurance Agency. The rain was not general but, was rather confined to about the same section as on Sunday night, the southern portion of the county being neglected again. It is not known as yet whether this neglected section is overly wicked though they ought not be for Millican just dedicated their Methodist church there last Sunday, but the elements seem to be against them just the same.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hansom of Dallas are in Bryan for a few days looking over sites on College Road with a view to purchasing and constructing a home here. They plan to send their boys to A. & M. College and want to have their home completed by fall and the opening of the term at A. & M.

Read all Eagle advertisements.

on a hundred hills overlooking fertile valleys of the Brazos, Navasot, Wixon, Bee and Cedar.

The farm Bureau News, May 1, quotes the San Angelo Weekly Standard as saying, under the head of "Texas Eggs Foot the New York Market": "The poorest prices quoted by commission houses are those prices such houses are willing to pay for an egg laid in the state of Texas. We foot the list. We take the 'booby prize.' Take this New York quotation now before us: Nearby white, 48c; Pacific coast whites, 45c; Texas and others, 31c. There are some 20 grades in between, including candied storage eggs, but we are undisputed bottom of the list. The New York market is willing to bet more money on a case of candied storage eggs, than on a case of eggs gathered, supposedly fresh, in the state of Texas. Looks like they are picking on us, doesn't it? But of course that is not the fact. I sthe fault, then, with the Texas hen. Hardly. Every egg a hen lays is a fresh egg. The situation can't be blamed on the hen. Neither can it be caused by our distance from the market, for California is much farther from New York than we are and yet she gets 14 cents more on the dozen for her eggs than we do.

Eggs Poorly Handled
Just why are our eggs discriminated against? The answer is simple. They are not worth more. And they are not worth more because they are unpleasantly truthful—we are both ignorant and careless in our method of marketing. Year after year those people in egg-buying centers have opened up Texas eggs and year after year they have found them the same way—always poor. We have made our reputation. About the only care we give to marketing eggs is to see that they don't slop over the top of the market before we get them there. Our eggs are all colors, all sizes, all ages with every condition of shell, weak, cracked, humpy, rough, smeary, with globs of filth adhering to the shell. And the interior of the egg is worse than the shell. There are some that are plain rotten. Some that contain dead embryo chicks. Then there are pale yolks, due to lack of green feed, there are reddish yellow yolks, due to hens eating barnyard filth; there are high smelling yolks from same cause; there are eggs tainted in flavor due to filth adhering to the shell. The shell is porous, you know, and is easily contaminated through the shell. Let's think these things over; then act.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MEETING THIS WEEK AS EQUALIZATION BOARD
The board of county commissioners are meeting this week, acting as a board of equalization and checking up the renditions of the tax assessor. All commissioners are present for the meeting.

THINGS ARE VERY QUIET IN DISTRICT COURT—THE GRAND JURY MAY REPORT

No cases were set for today or tomorrow, civil, in district court and things are very quiet. The county attorney is very busy with the grand jury which is expected to render its report this afternoon or tomorrow.

Will Conrad of Zack, in the Cedar Creek community, was in town this morning, called by his duties as constable in connection with the convening of district court. He reports a heavy rain there Sunday night.

Mrs. Albert Wallace of Lancaster is here for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Wm. N. Sholl.

Read all Eagle advertisements.

Royal Cords Rank First
United States Tires are Good Tires

ANNOUNCEMENT—There was a shortage of Royal Cord Clincher Tires last year. Production is doubled this year.

Demand more than justifies this increased production. Whenever you have a chance to buy a Clincher Royal—take it.

Where to buy U.S. Tires

Halsell Motor Co., Bryan, Texas
A. & M. College, College Station, Texas
Payne and Rychnik, Edgewood, Texas
W. H. Buchanan, Kurten, Texas
B. O. Dowling, Wellborn, Texas

BONDS OF THE ALLEN MILITARY ACADEMY BEING SOLD TODAY

Fifteen thousand five hundred dollars of the $35,000 worth of bonds being issued for sale by the Allen Military Academy were sold this morning between the hours of nine and ten o'clock, according to Mayor Haswell, chairman of the educational committee who made this report before the regular Tuesday morning meeting of the board of directors of the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce at ten o'clock in the commercial rooms. W. H. Cole, president of the Bryan Building and Loan Association reported that a committee of business men from Brenham was in Bryan on last Friday and, as instructed in a former meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Secretary S. E. Eberstadt entertained them with a luncheon at the Bryan hotel, the afternoon being consumed with explanation of the Bryan plan by President Cole and Secretary Eberstadt.

New Bryan Resident
City Manager E. E. McAdams expressed his appreciation to the Chamber of Commerce for the splendid co-operation shown during the convention of the League of Texas Municipalities and stated that the delegates attending same were loud in their praise of the entertainment and hospitality shown them by Bryan citizens. Chairman Lawrence of the special committee from the Chamber of Commerce for subscriptions, reported that the required sum had been raised but that Bryan had failed to secure the 1924 convention and that the matter was now a closed incident. County Agent C. L. Beason introduced O. A. Hansom of Dallas who addressed the meeting briefly stating that he expected to make his future home in Bryan and would place his sons in A. & M. College.

Rountree Resolution
Judge W. C. Davis, reporting for the special committee on resolutions reported the following from his committee, which after being read was adopted by a rising vote which was called for by President Gordon the vote being unanimous.

To the Hon. J. M. Gordon, President of Bryan Chamber of Commerce: We, your committee appointed to draft suitable resolutions on the death of Hon. Lee J. Rountree, beg to submit the following:

Whereas, Honorable Lee J. Rountree, distinguished citizen, legislator and editor of the Bryan Daily Eagle, has been removed from our midst by the decree of an all-wise Providence; and, Whereas, he has rendered a distinct service to the state and nation in his advocacy of important legislation in the Texas Legislature, and has displayed conspicuous ability in placing upon the statute books measures which will in years to come redound to the prosperity of Texas, and has been a leader in the educational affairs of the state and untiring in his efforts to secure adequate appropriations for the Agricultural and Mechanical College; and,

Whereas, as a citizen of Bryan, he has consistently and persistently advocated those things and policies which make for a bigger and greater Bryan and Brazos county, giving freely of his time, energy and wholesome devotion to the upbuilding of every worthwhile interest in our midst; and,

Whereas, as an editor and publisher of the Bryan Daily Eagle, he has rendered a distinct service to our entire citizenship; in that, in the columns of the Eagle he has unstintingly given space and publicity without cost to all worthy enterprises; and,

Whereas, as a member and director of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce, he has ever been faithful in helping to carry out the plans and policies of the organization which make for a prosperous city and people; and,

Whereas, as a friend and Christian gentleman, he has exercised those personal characteristics and lofty deals which makes living worth while, and in his daily walk and life justified the truthfulness of that saying: "That service to mankind is the chief object of life."

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Bryan Chamber of Commerce that in the death and passing of our faithful member and friend, Lee J. Rountree, that the nation, the state, the county, the city and our organization has lost a useful and distinguished director and member; and, Resolved further, that we extend to his sad and bereaved wife, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, our sincere and deepest sympathy; and, Resolved further, that a copy of this resolution be furnished Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, and that a copy be furnished the Bryan Daily Eagle for publication, and a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes. Respectfully submitted, JNO. M. LAWRENCE, W. C. DAVIS, F. L. HENDERSON.

Present At Meeting
Those present at the meeting were: Wilson Bradley, Tary's B. Bryan, W. H. Cole, J. N. Dulaney, E. J. Fountain, President J. M. Gordon, Mayor Tyler Haswell, F. L. Henderson, John M. Lawrence, T. K. Lawrence, E. E. McAdams, L. L. McInnis, A. M. Waldrop, M. E. Wallace, with S. E. Eberstadt at the desk; also County Farm Agent C. L. Beason; Judge W. C. Davis, O. A. Hanson of Dallas.

S. B. Wright, representing the Round Rock Broom Factory, was in Bryan today and was an appreciated visitor at the Eagle office. Mr. Wright is one of Williamson county's most substantial citizens and the Eagle is proud to number him among its friends.

EASTERN STAR ELECTS OFFICERS AT MEETING ON MONDAY NIGHT

The regular meeting of Bryan Chapter, No. 222, Order of the Eastern Star, was held at the Chapter room in the Masonic Temple Monday night at 8 o'clock with a splendid attendance in spite of the very inclement weather. On account of her recent sad bereavement, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, Worthy Matron was absent for the first time during her term of office. By invitation of Worthy Patron H. E. Randolph, Past Matron Mrs. Dona Carnes, presided, with the following officers: Worthy Matron, Dona Carnes, acting; Worthy Patron, H. E. Randolph; Associate Matron, Stella Buchanan; Secretary, Floy Erskine; Treasurer, M. M. Erskine; Conductress, Prager, Associate Conductress, Lena Brown, acting; Chaplain, Rosa Stubenrauch; Organist, Helen Lee, acting; Adah, Nell Bentley, acting; Esther, Jeanette L. Wright, acting; Electa, Ida Phillips, acting; Minnie Higgins; Sentinel, J. M. Dunn. Business of the meeting was the election of Chapter officers for the ensuing year. The following were unanimously chosen: Mrs. Albert Buchanan, worthy matron; H. E. Randolph, worthy patron; Mrs. H. M. Erskine, associate matron; Mrs. M. M. Erskine, secretary, M. M. Erskine, treasurer; Mrs. Oak McKenzie, conductress; Mrs. Dora Wilson, associate conductress. Expressions of deep sympathy were given for the beloved worthy matron, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, in her sad bereavement in the death of her life companion, and a committee appointed to draft resolutions and condolence from the chapter. The chapter charter was ordered draped in mourning in respect for the late Hon. Lee J. Rountree, who was an active and valuable member of the local chapter. Installation of the newly elected officers will take place, May 31st.

MISS LYDA BELLE PIPKIN IS ONLY BRYAN GIRL TO GRADUATE FROM BAYLOR

Mrs. A. S. McSwain received an announcement this morning of the graduation of her sister, Miss Lyda Belle Pipkin, from Baylor College at Belton. Miss Pipkin is the only girl from Bryan graduating from that school this year.

ENGINEER GIVES MORE EVIDENCE

Tanlac Entirely Overcome Neuritis and Restored Full Strength, Declares Green

"Tanlac put me on the main line to health, and is a medicine that everybody ought to know about," says J. T. Green, 107 Dallas avenue, Cleburne, Texas, engineer of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe for the past 15 years, running the 'Nancy Hank' between Cleburne and Weatherford. "For years I suffered from indigestion, bloating, constipation and all the disagreeable symptoms of stomach trouble. Neuritis would strike me in my leg, shin, ankle or foot like I had been stabbed with a knife. I couldn't half sleep, my work was a strain on me, and I couldn't get any joy out of life."

"I have just finished my second bottle of Tanlac, which I have been taking together with the Tanlac Vegetable Pills, and am now free from the neuritis, sleep eight hours every night without waking, and eat hearty and enjoy my meals. I feel energetic, ambitious and like work now. Tanlac is great."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.—Adv.

REV. J. J. PIPKIN TO KANSAS CITY ATTEND A BAPTIST CONVENTION

Rev. J. J. Pipkin left today for Kansas City, where he will be for a week attending the sessions of the Southern Baptist Convention. He goes as a delegate from the Brazos County Baptist Association.

MR. AND MRS. W. W. KRAFT GO NORTH TO VISIT ALMA MATER NORTHWESTERN U

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kraft left today for an extended trip North, which will keep them away from A. & M. College for about a month. First, they will go to Champaign, Illinois, for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Rothgeb. Mr. Rothgeb was former assistant coach at A. & M. College. From Champaign they will go to Chicago to attend commencement exercises at Northwestern University, the Alma Mater of both Mr. and Mrs. Kraft. With short trips to other points in Wisconsin, Illinois, and Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Kraft expect to return to College about June 15. The children are visiting their grandparents in Coleman.

NO SERVICES MONDAY NIGHT AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH ACCOUNT RAIN

The revival services at the Christian church had to be postponed again last night, due to a continuation, or rather a recurrence of Sunday night's rain. The elements seem to be contrary to this revival but that is only seemingly for all the people of the entire county are being greatly benefitted by the rains and the services can be held on succeeding nights.

Read all Eagle advertisements.

INFLUENCE OF A. & M. REACTS ON BRYAN TO MAKE IT PROGRESSIVE

(By Tom Flinty, Jr., Dallas News)
"It was a great convention of the Texas League of Municipalities at Bryan," declared Col. Bill S. Crooge, the well known Nelson county cowman, who spent Saturday in Dallas on his way to the Bar-None ranch. "It was a great convention, although a different convention, although in that we leaguers found ourselves considering farming, stockraising and chickens quite as much as we did municipal government, which goes to prove the truth of the assertion that 'civilization begins and ends with the cow.'"

"Citizens of Bryan have a new joke which they spring on visitors. They drove we leaguers out the A. & M. College road. We could see that the city had lapped up much of the territory that lay beyond its limits only a few years ago. Just as we got to the new far-flung boundary, our hosts said 'Bryan is producing many fine chickens,' and when we gallantly answered, 'Yes, we have noticed many of them on your streets,' they chorused: 'We are not speaking of that kind of chickens, but instead—' Here followed a panegyric on poultry raising in and around Bryan, which lecture was hardly necessary, for by this time we were passing a string of poultry farms, some of them large, but many small. Some of these latter are owned by Federal students at A. & M.—disabled ex-service men receiving vocational training in that institution."

"On these farms thousands of chicks are hatched daily. Most of them are shipped as babies to feeding centers around the great cities of the country, but some are matured for the home market. I know that this is true, because real spring chicken, without the cold storage flavor, was the piece de resistance at the two luncheons and one dinner given in honor of we leaguers."

A. & M. Influence on Bryan
"The Hon. Tyler Haswell, the republican mayor of Bryan, chosen on a non-partisan ticket, of course, says that the most pronounced reaction from the A. & M. College in the immediate vicinity of that institution is the development of this poultry industry. Probably this is true from an industrial standpoint. Otherwise, I believe the greatest reaction is in the transformation of Bryan itself from a rather backward town into a beautiful, convenient and comfortable city. I had not visited Bryan or the College in ten years, and I found that both had grown in size, stability and finish in about the same way. Buildings of magnitude, permanence and good architecture have supplanted many of the earlier structures of smaller merit, and the modern facilities and conveniences that make for comfortable living have come to both. More than that, we leaguers who were able to institute comparison could see an improvement in the cadet corps as compared with that of a decade ago; it bears evidence of better training and better discipline. And it seems to me that Bryan has caught the spirit of youth, of which Mayor Cockrell of Fort Worth spoke from these young men as well as from the students in the other educational institutions of Bryan."

"Certain of the citizens of Bryan told me that the attitude of Bryan toward the A. & M. College had changed; that they had formerly thought of the profits they could make out of the college trade, but in recent years they had come to have a deeper interest."

Bryan and the Bars
"I believe that this is true nor is it entirely due to the fact that a co-operative store on the campus has cut much of the college trade in Bryan. In earlier years, I found that Bryanites looked upon this college just as many other towns had upon their colleges—as an industry with a pay roll and spending money. I have visited the city long enough to be acquainted with a gradual evolution of the idea. In the second stage the citizens came to feel a personal pride in the college; they basked in the light of a reflected glory; in an atmosphere of culture, they began to enjoy the reputation of being cultured themselves. Now they realize that day by day in every way they actually have improved because of their environment that their education has progressed whether within or without the college walls."

"You profess to be an authority upon Bryan," suggested one of the colonel's friends. "I admit it," said he, "whether it be Bryan, the Peerless, or Bryan, the Peerless, and that reminds me that although Bryan folk boast of having abolished bars, they now claim to have 364 bars, they now claim to have 364 bars of contraband whisky behind the bars." "I don't quite get it," commented another friend. "We didn't get it," said the colonel. "Now," he went on to say, "I want to talk a little about the Texas League of Municipalities and the convention. There was a striking difference between this Bryan meeting and that in Waxahachie last year. At Waxahachie the top liner was regulation of public utilities. Hardly anything else received attention. At Bryan, the leaguers talked about everything else but public utilities. The sole reference to the subject was contained in the keynote speech of President Cockrell, whose theme was community building. Emphasizing the value of co-operation, he said for one thing that public utilities ought to be dealt with in a spirit of co-operation which co-operation he declared ought to be two-sided."

"The league is doing a useful work. It can be made yet more useful if its membership shall be increased and the delegates shall come to the conventions prepared to stay from the start to finish. Every municipality in Texas ought to become a member of the league, and this without reservation."

"The delegates and the cities they represent get a benefit not merely from the main addresses in the conventions and the publications of the league, but also, and probably chiefly from the discussions. In these latter, as well as in conversation among themselves, the delegates go after specific information needed back home and, because of the personal contact they become acquainted with repositories of information and sites of experiment upon which they can and do draw as occasions demand."

Read all Eagle advertisements.

They Call Him Bill Lea
"Because of the desire of many of the delegates to hurry back home, not much opportunity was presented for discussion in the Bryan meeting, and therefore a number of delegates were disappointed, but I understand that it is intended to make better provision for this provision in the Paris meeting in 1924. It is my belief that it would be better to have fewer papers and more discussions, as was the rule in the old farmers congress that I attended at the A. & M. College for a number of years."

"I believe that the league will go forward. It has a good set of officers and many members of ability. The new president is young, full of energy and wants to do things. Christened William Lea, everybody calls him Bill Lea. Although young, he is conservative. He believes that 'a growing city ought to issue bonds in order that it may provide needed improvements and facilities without greatly humping the tax rate; but he also believes that no city is justified in going hog-wild about bonds. He believes that bonds ought to be paid off as soon as improvements are used, and that the buck ought not to be passed along to posterity. His ideal is twenty-year serial bonds for permanent improvements, with emphasis on the 'permanent.' In other words Bill believes that municipalities, like individuals, ought to play 'em close to the abdomen. That's about all, except that I hope to meet you in Paris in 1924.'"

HIGHWAY ASSOCIATION OF TEXAS CAMPAIGNS IN BEHALF OF MEASURE

WACO, Texas, May 15—Preliminaries in connection with the campaign that will be conducted in behalf of the State highway amendment, which, if it is carried, will place designated highways under control of the State Highway department, were discussed at a meeting Saturday morning at the Hotel Raleigh here of the executive board of the Texas Highway Association. The president W. V. Crawford of Waco, presided.

A state highway amendment campaign committee was appointed, members of which, with the finance and membership committee, will meet within the next two weeks, probably in Fort Worth, to plan the campaign. The election of the constitutional amendment will be held on July 28.

Better Road Legislation
The campaign committee is composed of the following: W. S. Whaley, Cleburne; George C. Holmgren, San Antonio; A. B. Spencer, Crosbyton; W. E. Lee, Orange; A. C. Allen, Dallas; J. A. Kunkle, Clarksville; Howard Bland, Taylor; F. E. Rightor, San Antonio; Lee Simmons, Sherman; O. C. Daney, Brownsville; Henry Sackett, Coleman; and Joe Burkett, Eastland.

President Crawford was presented with the resolutions adopted at the meeting of the Texas Highway Association in Dallas a few weeks ago. They were inscribed on parchment and framed. The presentation speech was made by Fred E. Rightor of San Antonio. The resolutions laud Mr. Crawford for the constructive legislation that has been adopted relative to highways during his tenure of office as head of the Texas Highway Association.

Vice President Elected
William T. Wheeler of Fort Worth was re-elected secretary of the Texas Highway Association. Succeeding Lee J. Rountree, who died recently in his duties as legislative representative from Brazos county, W. S. Whaley of Cleburne was elected a vice president of the association.

The following standing committees were appointed. Finance—C. A. Clark, Dallas; George C. Holmgren, San Antonio; R. J. Potts, Waco, and Lee Morris, Chico. Publicity—W. D. Haden, Galveston; L. J. Wortham, Fort Worth; R. W. Simpson, Tyler; R. H. Coffee, Vernon, and C. H. Walker, Dalhart. Program—R. J. Potts, Waco; G. P. Maury, Mineral Wells; W. D. Haden, Galveston; H. D. Gooch, Amarillo; C. B. Jones, Spur, and F. E. Rightor, San Antonio. Membership—L. W. Kemp, Houston; J. K. Dickerson, Hallettsville; C. F. Tom, Gonzales; E. Elkie, New Braunfels; H. D. Gooch, Amarillo; G. R. Abney, Lufkin; R. P. Tanas, Houston; Charles Percival, Rockport; J. H. Briggs, San Antonio; E. J. Hernan, Dallas and W. E. Lea, Orange.

A committee composed of R. J. Potts, Waco; L. W. Kemp, Houston, and G. P. Murray, Mineral Wells, was named to draft resolutions of regret relative to the death of Mr. Rountree.